Attractiveness of the country and city your university is located in:

Students can decide on which campus they would like to study with us. It can be in France (Paris, Le Havre or Caen) or in Oxford. Each campus has its own area of expertise and students can also change campus each semester (ex : Fall in Oxford, Spring in Caen) Also, Normandie is a beautiful region, only 2 hours from Paris!

The strengths of academics at your university:

Here are some of the possible courses per campus :

Caen : data management, intercultural management, marketing

Le Havre : supply chain, logistics, international business

Paris : international events, luxury, artificial intelligence

Oxford : finance, baking and fintech

Available student life support during the exchange:

- Airport pick-up
- Buddy system
- Orientation days and welcome day
- Student societies
- Central HUB office : help with housing, health care, immigration...

Opportunity of interaction with other students:

There is an international student society on each campus to organise events. The international affairs office also organises some events for the students during the year : orientation days, welcome day, international days, Erasmus days, farewell...
