

Rennes School of Business

Rennes, FRANCE

Attractiveness of the country and city your university is located in:

Rennes is located in a very economically attractive region also famous for touristic features. Rennes is located at 1h25 from Paris by high speed train and 40 minutes from the sea and famous landmark such as Saint Malo and Mont Saint Michel.

The strengths of academics at your university:

We offer all aspects of business/management areas (Marketing, Finance, Supply Chain and HR...). All classes are taught in English by our multicultural faculty members (95% of professors are international). Our school is triple crown accredited (AACSB/EQUIS/AMBA) which guaranties its academic excellence.

Available student life support during the exchange:

International Mobility office guides students through admissions and academic journey at Rennes SB

Welcome Office helps students with non-academic matters (accommodation/visa/allowances/bank accounts etc...)

Aloha square team provides general support for all kind questions the students may have while at School.

Well'Come Association integrates international students through social and cultural events

Opportunity of interaction with other students:

We have a multicultural campus (53% of international students). Classes includes group projects allowing the students to work together. Events are organised all year long by all the school associations and international students are very welcome to join!
