

San Diego State University

San Diego, CA

Established in: 1897

Number of students enrolled: 33,800

Website for incoming exchange students: ISC - Inbound Ex

Attractiveness of the country and city your university is located in:

San Diego is referred to as the Finest City for its elegance, but also the array of activities people can partake in. It is also known for its beautiful beaches and sunny weather.

The strengths of academics at your university:

We have a very diverse campus through staff, faculty, and students. There are a large number of majors that can be chosen from.

Please keep in mind that Journalism is not available for exchange students.

Available student life support during the exchange:

Students' exchange is organized by the International Student Center (ISC) - SDSU Global Affairs. The ISC is like your home away from home. You will have a dedicated advisor to help with any questions you may have while at SDSU.

Opportunity of interaction with other students:

There are a large number of student organizations on campus you can take part in. As well as, lots of campus activities and events that welcome inbound exchange students. One of the most popular ones is Aztec Nights.

