

ZHAW School of Management and Law

Zurich-Winterthur, Switzerland

Attractiveness of the country and city your university is located in:

Situated in the student town of Winterthur, ZHAW SML is also conveniently close to downtown Zurich, Zurich Airport, and the German border. All can be reached by train or car in 15–30 minutes, making our campus a convenient starting point from which to explore the natural beauty of Switzerland and the whole of Europe.

The strengths of academics at your university:

1/ Quality education: The ZHAW SML is AACSB accredited.

2/ Practical orientation and experienced lecturers: Faculty members at the SML are not only highly qualified academics; they also have years of practical experience and access to an extensive professional network.

3/ Wide range of subjects: Incoming students can choose between more than 100 modules among numerous majors in banking and finance, business law, international business, innovation and entrepreneurship, and marketing.

Available student life support during the exchange:

Every year, the International Office at the SML welcomes more than 200 exchange students from over 30 countries. The International Office is their point of contact, and its team is committed to supporting them every step of the way to ensure their time in Switzerland is well spent and as enjoyable as possible.

Opportunity of interaction with other students:

The International Office provides all exchange students with a local “buddy” at the beginning of the semester who will accompany them during their first days after arrival and assist them with any questions they may have during their stay. There is also a language tandem program enabling exchange students to learn basic German from a local student in return for teaching them some of their own language. In addition, the local ESN Winterthur group is committed to enhancing the exchange experience for international students by organizing social activities such as excursions and parties throughout the semester.

Established in: 2007

Number of students enrolled: 5,024
