2. Course Registration

2.1 Course Registration

- Course Registration involves not only carrying out the procedures for registering classes, but also making the decision regarding which classes you wish to take. It is the most important part of your academic planning, and it is necessary in taking classes, receiving credit and graduating. To help facilitate the planning of all students, always take utmost care when registering. Please do not register for courses you do not plan to attend, as this may prevent other students from registering.
- The syllabus can be viewed on the Campus Terminal. Please review the syllabus before registering.
- When you register or cancel subjects online, please be sure to click the Apply button to register your changes. Upon completion, please make sure to save or print the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet which includes your "Registration No." Without this number on the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet, we cannot respond to inquiries about system errors. Be sure to record the date the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet was printed/saved.
- Students expecting to graduation in March, 2021 who are uncertain about meeting the required credit criteria should plan to register and complete extra credits.

2.2 Grade Level

Each course corresponds to a particular level of study, indicated by a grade level code (refer to the pp.92-99 Undergraduate Academic Handbook). The levels are as follows. Please note that in most cases, with the exception of seminars and some other designated subjects, subjects can be resisterd by students in the corresponding year or those in a higher year.

Grade Level	100 level	200 level	300 level	400 level
Description	Primarily for 1 st year students	Primarily for 2 nd year students	Primarily for 3 rd year students	Primarily for 4 th year students

2.3 Course Registration Period

Period A	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Course registration for Language Education subjects, Common Liberal Arts subjects (with exceptions: refer to 2.5), Major Education (Own college) subjects possible. Registration period A dates differ for each college. Students may only register for courses according to the course registration schedule of their own college. The number of students allotted to common courses available to both colleges during course registration period A – such as 'Language courses' and 'Common Liberal Arts subjects' – will be determined by the total number of students in each college. During Period B, students from both colleges will be able to register for classes that did not reach capacity during Period A. *Please note that you cannot delete or make changes to subjects that are automatically registered by the University
Period B	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Course registration for all subjects. Students may register for subjects from another college beginning their second year.
Correction Period	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Courses which have already begun may be dropped only and cannot be newly registered.

- Students bear full responsibility for any errors made during course registration.
As no special consideration will be given for such errors, please use extra caution during registration to ensure no mistakes are made.
- If you access Campusmate via any browser other than Internet Explorer (IE) it is possible an error may occur.
The University takes no responsibility for registration problems caused by such errors.
- Do not log into multiple screens with the same account at the same time. This can lead to system errors, preventing registration.
The University will bear no responsibility for any problems a student may experience in this case.
- If you log out or close the registration screen prior to completing course registration, you will lose all changes.
You must first complete your course registration, log out, and then log in again to confirm your course registration is correct.
Mistakes in registration are your own responsibility.
- Using another person's APU Net ID and password to access Campus Terminal, Campusmate, or other services is an extremely serious criminal act.
Never use another person's account ID and password.
- There are many reported cases resulting in serious problems because of students swapping subjects during the course registration period.
You must not give away or trade subjects with other students. The University does not take responsibility for any problems caused by such behavior.
Furthermore, students who trade subjects for money or other compensation will be subject to disciplinary action.
- You are responsible for any adverse result that comes from using these systems.
- When you register or cancel subjects online, please be sure to click the Apply button to register your changes.
Upon completion, please make sure to save or print the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet which includes your "Registration No."
Without this number on the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet, we cannot respond to inquiries about system errors.
Be sure to record the date the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet was printed/saved.
- Every morning between the hours of 3:00 and 5:00(Japan Standard Time) Campusmate will be offline for maintenance.
- This schedule is subject to change due to any further outbreaks of Covid-19.

Please make sure to regularly check the University homepage and Campus Terminal for the latest updates.

*1 If a student wishes to apply to enroll in the IR Honors Program, they must first register IRP as their area of study during Course Correction Period 2 in their 2nd or 3rd semester.

*2 Please refer to pp.86-87 for more information about Major Education Subjects for an Area of Study.

3.3 Required Japanese Subjects

- For English-basis students, the starting level of Japanese language courses will be based on the results of the placement test at the time of enrollment. Until all required Japanese courses are completed, the University will continue to automatically register and assign students to classes.

The Course Timetable for automatically registered subjects such as Japanese language classes (mandatory language subjects) etc. will be announced via Campus Terminal on September 17 (tentative).

4. APS Core Subjects

By taking these two core subjects, students can learn the ideals and objectives of APS. Therefore, students are strongly encouraged to complete these two subjects during their 1st year. As the table below shows, "Introduction to APS" is automatically registered by the university, but students need to register "Introduction to Area Studies" by themselves if they want to take it.

Subject Name	Introduction to APS	Introduction to Area Studies
Subject Field	APS Major Education Subjects
Registration	Automatic	Registered by Student
Registration Period Set by APU	English-basis students: 1st semester

[Note] These core subjects are not required subjects for graduation.

5. Use Caution when Registering for the Following Courses

Please note that some subjects will not be available for you depending on your curriculum, semester of enrollment, etc. Please make sure that you refer to the Undergraduate Academic Handbook (pp.134-137) and course syllabus for details.

5.1 Japanese Subjects

- The University will continue to automatically assign classes until students have acquired the credits for the mandatory Japanese subjects. The timetable and lecturer may differ from class to class, even if offered at the same level. All subjects will be assigned by the University and students will not be able to change or drop classes.
- Japanese Language for Specific Purposes is for students who have completed their language graduation requirements but nevertheless wish to further improve their language skills. Please refer to the syllabus and Undergraduate Academic Handbook (p.112) for more details on course objectives and prerequisite subjects.

5.2 Asia Pacific Languages (AP Languages)

Registration can be carried out during the regular registration period. Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- The language subject that they are registering for is not their native language. Students who register for a course in their native language will have their registration deleted.
- Japanese-basis students must have completed or be exempted from 'Elementary English A and B' and English-basis students must have completed or be exempted from 'Japanese Foundation Course I, II, and III'.

5.3 English Subjects

- English-basis students who wish to register for English courses may take English courses at the "Advanced Track" level (Undergraduate Academic Handbook: pp.75-76).
- English-basis students may register for "Advanced English 2A·2B" or Language for Specific Purposes in Advanced Track by themselves during Course Registration Period B only if there are seats available
- Only students with a TOEFL ITP® Test score between 500 to 524 may apply for "Advanced English 1A·1B". Students who wish to register must submit a TOEFL ITP® Test score sheet in the semester preceding the one in which they wish to take the course. Accepted students may register for these courses by themselves during Course Registration Period B only if there are seats available. Please refer to the Undergraduate Academic Handbook (pp.75-76) for more details.
