2. Course Registration

2.1 Course Registration

- Course Registration involves not only carrying out the procedures for registering classes, but also making the decision regarding which classes you wish to take. It is the most important part of your academic planning, and it is necessary in taking classes, receiving credit and graduating. To help facilitate the planning of all students, always take utmost care when registering. Please do not register for courses you do not plan to attend, as this may prevent other students from registering.
- The syllabus can be viewed on the Campus Terminal. Please review the syllabus before registering.
- When you register or cancel subjects online, please be sure to click the Apply button to register your changes. Upon completion, please make sure to save or print the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet which includes your "Registration No." Without this number on the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet, we cannot respond to inquiries about system errors. Be sure to record the date the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet was printed/saved.

2.2 Grade Level

Each course corresponds to a particular level of study, indicated by a grade level code (refer to the pp.92-99 Undergraduate Academic Handbook). The levels are as follows.

Grade Level	100 level	200 level	300 level	400 level

*Can be registered during each course registration / correction period. Can be changed up to course correction period 2 of your expected semester of graduation.

5. Use Caution when Registering for the Following Courses

Please note that some subjects will not be available for you depending on your curriculum, semester of enrollment, etc. Please make sure that you refer to the Undergraduate Academic Handbook (pp.132-137) and course syllabus for details.

■ English Subjects

- English courses (required subjects) are divided into A (4 credits) and B (2 credits) subjects, each graded according to its own evaluation criteria. Only once credits for both subjects have been completed can a student proceed to the next level.
- Until all required English courses for the language track are completed, the University will continue to automatically register and assign students to classes. When retaking the same course, a student will not necessarily be registered for the same instructor or class, and this registration may not be changed or cancelled.
- There are no “Language for Specific Purposes” subjects scheduled for AY 2019 Spring Semester.

■ Japanese Subjects

- The University will continue to automatically assign classes until students have acquired the credits for the mandatory Japanese subjects. The timetable and lecturer may differ from class to class, even if offered at the same level. All subjects will be assigned by the University and students will not be able to change or drop classes.
- Japanese Language for Specific Purposes is for students who have completed their language graduation requirements but nevertheless wish to further improve their language skills. Please refer to the syllabus and Undergraduate Academic Handbook (p.112) for more details on course objectives and prerequisite subjects.

■ Asia Pacific Languages (AP Languages)

Registration can be carried out during the regular registration period. Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- The language subject that they are registering for is not their native language. Students who register for a course in their native language will have their registration deleted.
- Japanese-basis students must have completed or be exempted from ‘Elementary English A and B’ and English-basis students must have completed or be exempted from ‘Japanese Foundation Course I, II, and III’.

Grade evaluation for Korean language courses includes scores from the Hangul Language Proficiency Test. The deadline for applying to take this test is Wed, April 17 at 16:30. Please take note if you intend to register for Korean language classes.

■ Courses Requiring Prior Application

Please be aware that the following require special application before the course registration period. For more details, please visit the Academic Office website.
