- Notes:
- Fill in the values for the blank spaces. Shaded areas will be calculated automatically.
 - Use A3 format. When submitting, arrange layout and print within one page, if possible. In case of the data going over more than 2 pages, arrange the print setting and keep the title line including "College / Graduate School", and "Department / Major" and so forth.
 - "Ratio of Current Students to Student Capacity", "Ratio of Enrollees to Intake Capacity (5 year average)", and "Ratio of Transfer Students to Transfer Student Capacity" should be rounded off to two decimal points
 - For departments offering both day and evening courses, list separately for day and night courses.
 - When entering the data of "Enrollees" and "Intake Capacity", in the case for college/department that has 4 years course term, list values for 5 years from "2012" onward. In the case for college/department that has 6 years course term, list values for 6 years from "2011" onward.
In the case of master's/doctoral program and professional degree program, list values for 5 years from "2012" onward.
If the university employs a semester system or other such system that also enables the acceptance of students in the fall or multiple times per year, please enter the enrollment capacity and number of admitted students for all entrance examinations completed as of the Association's designated base date for application creation (i.e., May 1 of the academic year prior to application).
 - List correspondence courses, graduate schools and other courses conforming to college table.
 - For colleges, departments, graduate or professional graduate schools no longer recruiting or has not reached the completion academic year, place them in the appropriate college/department, graduate school/major column noted with an asterisk.「※」(Example: No recruiting since April, 2013)
 - If there is a college with only holdover enrollees under the situation that it carries out no more admission, create a column for the college, and list only "Current Number of Students(B)."
 - Change the assigned value according to the current condition of the university, regarding the course term for graduate schools of other departments.
 - Calculations for the "Ratio of Enrollees to Intake Capacity (5 year average)" is automatically set for 5 years. Correct the calculations for any colleges or departments established for less than 5 years.

[University Notes]

- Figures in "Current Number of Students (B)" are current as of November 1, 2016.
- As APU admits students in both the spring and the fall semesters, "Enrollees" in AY2016 is the total number of spring and fall enrollees. Number of Transfer students are also the same.
