

AP Conference Undergraduates Session Call for Presenters

A panel session and a poster session will be set up at the AP Conference (November 5-6, 2016) for undergraduate students from APU and other universities. It is expected that students will actively look for opportunities to write internationally viable academic papers and produce world class research results in Asia Pacific Studies. Professor Timothy Lee (RCAPS Deputy Director) will also give a lecture on paper writing as part of the session.

Eligibility	Undergraduate students at APU or other universities (3 rd or 4 th year preferable)
How to Apply	Send your abstract for screening together with your application information through this website. Abstracts should be between 200 to 300 words. Screening is conducted on a rolling basis. Only one abstract may be submitted per person. The AP Conference does not accept applications for online presentations via Skype, etc. The submission deadline is strictly observed. http://en.apu.ac.jp/rcaps/page/content0105.html/
Language	English or Japanese There will be an English panel and a Japanese panel. The poster session will include both English and Japanese.
Abstract Submission Deadline	August 31 (Wed), 2016 Screening is conducted on a rolling basis. When the number of participants has reached capacity, we will stop accepting applications.
Screening	The RCAPS Steering Committee will conduct screening and assign applicants to a panel session or a poster session. Abstracts that do not meet quality standards may be rejected. Requests for particular sessions or dates will not be accommodated.
Registration Fee	JPY 5,000 (Student) The acceptance notice will include instructions for payment of the registration fee. This registration fee includes lunch and dinner during the conference. APU faculty and current student presenters will be exempt from the registration fee. Lunch and dinner will be available to audience members for a per meal fee.
Announcement	Late September (Result will be informed by Email.)
Special Lecture	“How to Write Better Papers” by Professor Timothy Lee (RCAPS Deputy Director) Date and details will be announced on the RCAPS homepage.

【Inquiry】Research Office
apconf@apu.ac.jp