

Applying for Leave of Absence

1. Leave of Absence

- 1) Students with a valid reason for being unable to attend classes for three months or more may apply for a leave of absence. (Examples: Illness, financial hardship, military service, or other unavoidable reasons.)
- 2) Students in a semester and course registrations in which they could potentially graduate are not able to apply for a leave of absence.
- 3) Leave of absence can only be taken in semester units (to include the semester and session). Leave of absence may be taken for a maximum of four consecutive semesters.
 - ※ During the leave of absence students may apply to shorten their leave of absence (return to APU earlier than planned), or they may apply to extend their leave of absence up to the total four semesters.
- 4) The leave of absence period is not regarded as part of your studies at APU.
 - You must attend for eight semesters and complete all required credits, otherwise you will not be able to graduate. (Six or seven semesters for students in the accelerated graduation program.)
 - Your status during leave of absence is registered student, not current student. You will be able to continue to use services like your APU email and Campus Terminal, but the type of certificates you can apply for are limited.

If you need a certificate, you can apply through the APU website.

Note:

- Any application fees or matriculation fees that have been paid will not be refunded for any reason.
- You cannot receive student discounts during a leave of absence.
- Students currently receiving a scholarship should check with the organization providing them with a scholarship to see if there are any procedures required to stop or suspend scholarship payments while on the leave of absence.
- Leave of absence applications will not be approved for students who owe money to the University. If you owe money to AP House, the library, or any other part of the University, pay what you owe before applying for a leave of absence.
- You cannot live in AP House during your leave of absence.

2. Leave of Absence Application Deadlines

For a leave of absence starting in the:

Your deadline is:

Spring semester	Feb. 15
