[Important] Before submitting an application, please read through the main important points listed in the attachment at the end of this Application Information – “Items Common to All Programs”. Conditions for participation which are unique to this program are listed below. Please read through them carefully, before considering your application.

1. Fees

Program fee

- The specified program fee must be paid to participate in the program. The estimated fees for each program are listed in the syllabus. For overseas programs, the finalized fees may exceed the estimated amount due to the rising demand for overseas travel and the depreciation of the Japanese Yen etc.
- Program costs and payment deadlines will be finalized around late November. (Payment deadline will be around mid-December.)
- If payment is not received by the due date, acceptance into the program will be cancelled as of the day after the due date. In such a case, the student will be treated as if he/she had "declined participation" and will be responsible for any fees already incurred.
- In the event that a decision is made to cancel the program after the program is deemed possible in late November, the student will be responsible for any expenses incurred up to that point (e.g., airline ticket cancellation fees, etc.).
- (For overseas programs) COVID-19 may cause restrictions and prevent you from entering the country, and you may be required to pay additional fees to enter the country. In such cases, the participants will be responsible for any expenses incurred.

2. Preparation before departure

Arrange transportation to field activity site

[For programs conducted in Japan]

- In principle, students must make their own arrangements under the guidance of their program supervisor.

[For overseas programs]

- The university will arrange the airline tickets. Payment methods will be communicated for each program after the student has been confirmed.
- The travel route will be from/to Japan, and the student will travel to/from Japan together with the faculty member in charge and other participants. Meeting and disbanding on-site are not allowed. No changes can be made to the itinerary due to personal reasons.

3. Disclaimer and Precautions

Precautions for course registration

- No special consideration will be given to students whose pre/post classes or dispatch periods overlap with regular lectures, make-up classes, regular examinations, make-up examinations, course registration periods, extra-curricular activities, or training programs. Please check the academic calendar, other activities and program periods carefully in advance.
- You may apply to the program even if the program period (pre-classes, dispatch, and post-classes) of the field study you wish to pursue overlaps with the 2nd Quarter and Winter Session courses of 2022 Fall semester for which you have already registered. However, if you decide to enroll in the Field Study program after the announcement of the program's acceptance/rejection results, please be sure to remove your course registration for 2nd Quarter and Winter Session courses of 2022 Fall semester during the Course Registration Correction Period 2
- The student is responsible for the cost of cancellation, including in the event of suspension.

4. Precautions related to COVID-19

Vaccination and PCR Testing

- If you are accepted to participate in the program, you will be required to obtain and submit; a vaccination certificate for domestic program participants, and Overseas Traveler's Vaccination Certificate of COVID-19 (“Vaccine Passport”) for overseas program participants, beside satisfying either of the following (1) or (2).
 - (1) Have received three doses of the COVID-19 vaccine.
 - (2) The last day of the on-site activity is within six months from the date of the second vaccination against COVID-19.
- The PCR or antigen test must be taken within 72 hours of the program start date (or flight time for overseas programs) and the test results must be reported to the Academic Office. Only if the test result is negative, the student will be allowed to participate in the program. (Details will be provided at the guidance for the confirmed participants.)

- (For overseas programs) If the program country requires the submission of a negative certificate, the type of test or the date and time of the test, please follow the instructions.

Cancellation of dispatch

- Depending on the status of the spread of COVID-19 infection, a decision may be made to cancel the dispatch. Please refer to “4. Program Cancellation or Change of Program Contents, Cancellation of Participation” in the attached “Items Common to All Programs”
- In the event of cancellation or interruption of the dispatch, or change of content, participating students may not make a claim against the University or host institution for any expenses incurred as a result of cancellation. Students will be responsible for any cancellation fees incurred.
- In the event of cancellation, grades and credits will not be awarded even after the program has begun.

5. Program Cancellation

Program cancellation criteria

- The decision on whether or not to dispatch the participants to the program site will be made in late November 2022.
- (For overseas programs) If the program site becomes Level 2 or higher on the Ministry of Foreign Affairs' Overseas Travel Safety Information “Travel Advice and Warning” level by the time the decision is made or before the start of the dispatch, the dispatch and on-site activity will be cancelled. (This will be determined on a country-by-country basis.) In the event that the level is raised to Level 2 or higher during the on-site activity, the faculty member in charge will make the decision to return to Japan after consultation with the Academic Affairs.

Please refer to “4. Program Cancellation or Change of Program Contents, Cancellation of Participation” in the attached “Items Common to All Programs”.

Measures to switch the program to online

In the event that a dispatch is cancelled, the program may be switched to online depending on the program. In the event that the dispatch is cancelled and the program is switched to online after your participation has been approved, the student may withdraw from the course and in that case, the course will be dropped (i.e., the grade will not be an “F”).

Academic Office will notify the participating students of any changes to the program content and the course cancellation procedure when the program is canceled. Please refer to the “Online switchover \(when dispatch is cancelled\)” column of the program list (P.3) for the current availability of online switching.

Items Common to All Programs

1. Visa

It is the student's responsibility to verify the visa(s) that will be required from departure through return home and then to apply. The visa(s) required will differ depending on the student's nationality, the country/region of dispatch, and the length of stay. Students should check the website for each embassy to confirm the visa required (including transit visas) and the documents required. Further, because visa application requirements can change without notice, please be sure you have the most recent information in hand. For those getting a "Visa On Arrival" (also: "On-Arrival Visa"), according to the regulations of the country issuing the visa, generally speaking such visas are not recognized except in cases when a visa cannot be obtained prior to traveling.

In the unlikely event that you are unable to obtain your visa by the date set, your dispatch/study abroad program will be canceled. Also, the dispatch/start date of your study abroad program will not be changed.

In that event, the participant will bear the cost of any cancellation fees. Cancellation fees to be borne and grades will be handled in accordance with the " Disclaimers and Notices ".

[International Students Only]

International students should review the renewal date for their Japanese residence permit and permission for reentry in addition to the visa requirements for the country where their program will be run. If there is anything you don't understand regarding the renewal date for your residence permit or permission for reentry, please check with the Student Office.

Note: Depending on the program, there are cases when your visa application will be handled by an agency. Please confirm the details with the program coordinator.

2. Insurance

Including cases where students have already individually taken out an insurance policy, program participants must take out domestic and overseas travel insurance as designated by APU and the host institution, join the JCSOS Crisis Management System (J-TAS), and so on. Details on taking out these insurance policies will be provided in the pre-program classes and at the guidance session for participants.

3. Vaccinations

The APU Health Clinic will provide information on the types of vaccinations it recommends at the pre-program classes and the guidance session for participants. Because the vaccinations recommended by the Health Clinic are not mandatory, each student should decide for themselves about whether to get the vaccination(s) or not. Students wishing to get the vaccination(s) should contact the health clinic and make an appointment for themselves.

Please note that some vaccinations may be mandatory depending on the dispatch destination, so please follow the instructions given during the guidance session.

4. Program Cancellation or Change of Program Contents, Cancellation of Participation

① The Dean of Academic Affairs will make the decision to cancel student dispatch if the following conditions are met:

- 1) In the event the Ministry of Foreign Affairs' "Travel Advise" is level 2 or above for the country or region of dispatch. However, if a "Warning on Infectious Diseases" is issued due to the spread of a new disease, etc., a decision will be made according to the situation.

2) In the event a program cannot be operated safely in view of social conditions.

2-1) When making the decision to cancel a program, we take into consideration the projection that any of the following will occur in the program destination: natural disasters; accidents; strikes; infectious disease; political unrest in the program country or region; disruptions to the normal operation of public transportation or medical services; war; terrorism; injury to, or sudden hospitalization of faculty coordinators; inadequate support for outgoing students from the host institution in the event of a crisis; or other unforeseen circumstances.

3) In the event a host institution decides to cancel acceptance of students from APU which involves overseas travel

② In the event any of the following apply, a participant's participation in a program may be cancelled even after the announcement of acceptance. Further, with the exception of Overseas Student Exchange Program, Double Degree Program, and Short-Term Summer/Winter Program, in the event a participant's participation in a program is cancelled, as a rule a grade of "F" will be assigned.

A) In the event a participant's course participation is judged inappropriate, taking into consideration the participant's behavior and attendance

B) In the event the participant becomes subject to disciplinary action after the announcement of screening results

C) In the event the designated overseas travel and accident insurance is not taken out, and/or in the event that university instructions concerning the submission of documents, attendance at required guidance sessions, etc. are not followed

D) In the event that the university determines study abroad is not suitable due to injury, illness, etc.

E) In the event of misconduct

F) In the event of other violations of the participant's duty as a student

③ The student will be required to pay for costs already incurred at the point in time when their program participation is canceled.

5. Withdrawal After the Announcement of Screening Results

The university undertakes screening on the assumption that, at the time of application, everyone who applies to a program wishes to participate. Therefore, as a general rule, withdrawal after the announcement of screening results is not permitted.

When applying, students should carefully review the program contents in advance and make their preparations assuming they will not withdraw. Furthermore, if a student fails to pay the cost set by the university by the deadline, this will be treated as a withdrawal. Please see Item "6. Cancellation Fees" below regarding cancellation fees. In the case of credit-granting programs, as a general rule, students who withdraw will be assigned a grade of "F".

6. Cancellation Fees

In cases where a participant is forced to withdraw after announcement of the screening results, the withdrawing student must pay costs incurred up until that point in time. The cancellation fee also includes bank fees (overseas wire fees, etc.).

In the case that the costs required by the program have already been remitted to the university, the cancellation fees will be deducted and the difference will be refunded.

The refund procedures require a certain amount of time.

7. Registration Plan

Students should thoroughly review their registration plan and number of credits to be earned through the program and confirm that this plan will not cause any problems with their registration plan for graduation. No special consideration will be given in the event that problems are identified after the screening results have been announced and also that an item listed in "4. Program Cancellation or Change of Program Contents, Cancellation of Participation" has arisen. Students should assume personal responsibility when applying to any program.

Note: It is not possible to participate multiple times in a program having the same lecture content.

If it is not clear whether or not the program you wish to apply for has the same content as a program you have already completed, please inquire with the Academic Office before applying.

8. Handling of Personal Information

A pledge will be sent to all successful applicants. Upon being accepted to the program, please see the pledge for details.

9. On Participating in a Program

- ① Whether or not a program experience is rewarding depends greatly on the attitude and effort of the participants themselves. Participants need to have the flexibility to accept the different cultures found abroad and a positive attitude towards learning. Each participant should firmly set goals for participating in the program. Further, attendance at the guidance session and the pre-/post-classes held before and after dispatch is mandatory. Absences without notice are not permitted. Also, students should be sure to submit all documents and assignments by their deadlines.
- ② During program participation, participants should comply with the "Off-Campus Study Programs Requirements for Participation (Pledge)" and the "Risk Management Guidelines for Off-campus Study Programs Participants".
