Field Study / Field Research Project

■Field Study■

It is a program in which students, under the guidance of a faculty members, conduct on-site surveys and research activities based on themes related to the specialized fields of each college, deepening their own interests and concerns and building a bridge between theory and practice.

Characteristics of programs in each college

[College of Asia Pacific Studies (APS)]

Programs in APS aim to help students learn a certain framework of Asia Pacific Studies comprehensively and to act with expertise, integrity, and compassion in the global society. Students are expected to learn to communicate adequately with others from different cultures and with different values, and explore, observe, analyze, and investigate different matters, discuss multivalent issues, and ultimately develop the ability to formulate well-structured solutions.

[College of International Management (APM)]

APM programs aim to foster student growth by cultivating students who possess a global mindset and the skills and knowledge to think critically. Furthermore, to increase the effectiveness of each program's curriculum, programs shall provide learning opportunities via the flipped classroom method to enrich students' understanding of economics and management.

APM will implement programs that fall under the following themes:

- A) Global Business Immersion
This program will give students a stratified understanding of the historical, cultural, and political aspects of business between countries and regions
- B) Creating Social Impact through Business
This program will foster entrepreneurs who can contribute to society by allowing students to observe the activities of real social entrepreneurs in person or to participate in training programs.
- C) Bridging the Gap Between Theory and Practice
This program will allow students to understand the gap between the latest theories studied in class and business in practice through field research and site visits at corporations.

[College of Sustainability Tourism (ST)]

The mission of the College of Sustainability and Tourism is to foster academic practitioners who will develop their academic knowledge and work on innovative research to solve contemporary global issues related to sustainability and tourism. As such, students are required to earn credit for off-campus programs such as field study as a graduation requirement. Field studies are conducted on-site based on topics related to the college's specialized fields, allowing students to pursue their own interests.

The courses are designed to deepen students' interests and learning by connecting specialized theory and practice.

■Field Research Project■ (There will be no offering in AY2025 Fall Semester.)

Field Research Project is a collaborative study program for 3rd and 4th year (5th – 7th semester) students taking seminar subjects. By participating in this program in addition to regular seminar classes, students can acquire in-depth expertise on their own research topics, which will lead to the writing of their graduation theses.

Submissions after acceptance into the program

After you have been accepted into the program, there are several required items and submissions that you will need to handle.

For more details on each due date, please refer to "Submissions after acceptance into the program" listed at the end of this Application Information.

Notes on Participation

【Important】 Before applying, please read through the main important points listed in the attachment at the end of this Application Information – "Requirements for Participation in Off-campus Programs". Conditions for participation which are unique to this program are listed below. Please read through them carefully, before considering your application.

1. Fees

Program fee

- The specified program fee must be paid to participate in the program. The estimated fees for each program are listed in the syllabus. For overseas programs, the finalized fees may exceed the estimated amount due to the rising demand for overseas travel and the depreciation of the Japanese Yen etc.
- The final amount of the program fee (payment amount) will be notified at the time of the announcement of the screening results.
- You are responsible for payment of the program fee by the deadline: November 14 (Fri), 14:00. If you fail to pay the fee by the deadline, your participation in the program will be canceled for any reason. In such a case, you will be responsible for any fees already incurred such as fees that had to be arranged up to that point, cancellation fees, and fees that should be divided by the number of participants.
- The fees listed below are only estimates as a rough guide, and the actual amount will be the total amount of various expenses already incurred at the time your participation is canceled.
Domestic program: Thousands of yen to tens of thousands of yen
Overseas program: Tens of thousands to hundreds of thousands of yen

Insurance

* Details will be provided at the Guidance for the confirmed participants.

(Domestic programs with overnight stay)

- Including cases where students have already individually taken out an insurance policy, program participants must take out domestic travel insurance as designated by APU.
- The insurance period is from the date of meeting on-site to the date of dismissal, and APU will arrange for the insurance application.

(Domestic programs without overnight stay)

- "Gakkensai; Personal Accident Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and Research", which all students are covered by upon enrollment at APU, applies to program activities as well. Therefore, there is no need to purchase separate insurance.

(Overseas programs)

- Including cases where students have already individually taken out an insurance policy, program participants must take out overseas travel insurance as designated by APU and the host institution, join a risk management system, and so on.
- The insurance coverage period must include all days from the date of departure from Japan to the date of return to Japan, regardless of the program duration. Insurance premiums are calculated based on the dates of travel abroad, but approximate prices are as follows.

Number of days of travel	The overseas travel insurance premiums	The risk management system fee
For up to 7 days	Approx. 6,500 yen	1,870 yen
For up to 14 days	Approx. 10,000 yen	1,870 yen
For up to 21 days	Approx. 12,000 yen	1,870 yen
For up to 34 days	Approx. 14,000 yen	3,740 yen

(Reference)The overseas travel insurance premiums URL: <https://www.creohuman.co.jp/business/travel-ins/>

- In principle, the insurance plan you will purchase will be the "Plan S". If you wish to purchase "Plan A" or "Plan B", please follow the instruction from Creo-human.
- Application schedule of overseas travel insurance (Details will be provided at the Guidance for the confirmed participants)

Date	Schedule

2. Preparation before departure

Details will be provided at the Guidance for the confirmed participants.

Transportation (and accommodation) arrangements "to" the practicum on-site

[For domestic programs]

- Please make your own transportation (and accommodation) arrangements to and from the on-site meeting place at your own responsibility.
- Meeting places and dates are listed in the syllabus for each program.

[For overseas programs]

- Please make your own transportation (and accommodation) arrangements to and from the on-site meeting place at your own responsibility.
- Meeting places and dates are listed in the syllabus for each program.
- You will not be allowed to participate in the Off-campus programs if any of the countries or regions on your route from departure to return to Japan are classified as Level 2 or higher risk by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan.

Transportation and accommodation arrangements during practicum

- Depending on the programs, the university may make arrangements for students, or students may make their own arrangements under the guidance of their instructor. Arrangement details for each program will be provided after the student has been selected.

3. Disclaimer and Precautions

Stricter deadlines for various submissions and program fees related to the program

- If you are accepted into a short-term Off-campus programs, the Outreach and Research Office will inform you of the required documents to be submitted for each program (e.g., pledge, surveys, etc.) and payment of the program fee.
- You are responsible for paying and submitting all required documents and program fees by the designated deadlines. Failure to submit all required documents and fees by the designated deadlines will result in cancellation of your participation in the program for any reason.
- If you are unable to participate in the program due to failure to submit materials or pay the program fee by the designated deadline, you must pay any fees incurred up to that point.

Precautions for Course Registration

- Please check the academic calendar, other activities and program periods carefully in advance as you cannot take regular lectures, make-up classes, regular examinations, make-up examinations, course registration periods, extra-curricular activities, or training programs that overlap with the Field Study/Field Research programs.
- You may apply to the program even if the program period (pre-program classes, practicum and post-program classes) of the field study you wish to pursue overlaps with the 2nd Quarter and Winter Session courses of the AY2025 Fall semester for which you have already registered. However, if you wish to enroll in the Field Study/Field Research program, you must make sure to remove your course registration for 2nd Quarter and Winter Session courses of the AY2025 Fall semester during the Course Registration Correction Period 2.
- No special consideration will be given to students whose pre/post-program classes or practicum periods overlap with extra-curricular activities, or training programs.

Cancellation or Withdrawal of Participation

- As stated above, failure to submit all required submissions and pay program fees by the designated deadline will result in cancellation of participation in the program.
- In principle, withdrawal after application will not be accepted.
- Even for unavoidable reasons (including cases of suspension or other student disciplinary action), students who cancel or withdraw from the program after their participation has been confirmed must pay the fees incurred up to that point.

4. Program Cancellation

The University will make decision to cancel student dispatch if the following conditions are met:

- A) If the destination country or region is in an area designated Danger Level 2 or above by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. However, if an infectious disease risk advisory is issued due to the spread of a new infectious disease, decisions will be made depending on the situation.
 - B) If there are natural disasters, accidents, strikes, infectious disease, political unrest, disruptions to the normal operation of public transportation or medical services, war, terrorism, injury to or sudden hospitalization of faculty coordinators, or other unforeseen circumstances in the destination country or region that make it difficult for the host institution to provide support for the dispatched students due to force majeure.
 - C) If the Host Institution decides to stop accepting dispatched APU students.
- In the above cases, you must pay any fees incurred up to that point.

5. Risk Management & Health Monitoring During the Program

Students will have to study in an environment that is different from their daily life while staying overnight at the program destination. Students are asked to take responsibility for risk management and monitoring their health during the program.

(If participation is cancelled before the pre-program classes start, then their course registration will be "deleted." However, this item does not apply to Exchange, Double Degree programs, Campus Asia programs, and Short-term summer /Winter programs.)

- (5) In the cases below, APU may make the decision to cancel student dispatch.

- A) If the destination country or region is in an area designated Danger Level 2 or above by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. However, if an infectious disease risk advisory is issued due to the spread of a new infectious disease, decisions will be made depending on the situation.
- B) If there are natural disasters, accidents, strikes, infectious disease, political unrest, disruptions to the normal operation of public transportation or medical services, war, terrorism, injury to or sudden hospitalization of faculty coordinators, or other unforeseen circumstances in the destination country or region that make it difficult for the host institution to provide support for the dispatched students due to force majeure.
- C) If the Host Institution decides to stop accepting dispatched APU students.

3. Meeting and Dismissal On-site

[All overseas programs (excluding FIRST, Service Learning)]

- (1) Participants will meet and be dismissed on-site during the program period, and are responsible for ensuring their own safety during their travels.
- (2) Participants are responsible for arranging their own flight tickets, and submitting their itinerary to APU.
- (3) Once an itinerary has been submitted to APU, it should not be changed without valid reason. If changes are made, the revised itinerary must be resubmitted to APU.
- (4) APU is not responsible for the participant's conduct outside the travel period required for program participation, and students must take responsibility for their own conduct outside of this period.

[FIRST, Service Learning]

- (1) Participants are not permitted to meet or be dismissed on-site, and they cannot enter the country on their own before the start of the program period.

- (2) After the end of the program period, participants must immediately return to Japan. They may not extend their period of stay in the host country.

4. Health and Safety Management

- (1) [All Overseas Programs (excluding FIRST, Service Learning)] Before departure, participants must purchase an overseas health and travel insurance policy designated by APU for the entire duration of their travel period, from the date of their departure from Japan until the date of their re-entry to Japan. In addition, participants are also required to enroll in the risk management system for the period specified by APU.
- [FIRST, Service Learning] Before departure, participants must purchase overseas travel insurance and enroll in the risk management system as designated by APU.
- [Domestic Programs] Participants must purchase domestic travel insurance and enroll in the risk management system as designated by APU.
- (2) Participants are responsible for managing their own personal health. Also, they must report any health conditions and required learning support using the designated form.
- (3) Participants must report if they have any pre-existing health conditions.
- (4) Should a participant require hospitalization or medical treatment, they must immediately inform APU and the Host Institution and follow staff and faculty instructions. The participant will be responsible for any medical expenses above the amount that is covered by their insurance.
- (5) In the event that a participant needs emergency medical attention or surgery but there is insufficient time to obtain the consent of the student or guarantor, the student agrees to be treated at the discretion of a doctor or faculty/staff from APU or the Host Institution.
- (6) If APU or the Host Institution determines that the participant requires medical treatment, and the participant makes the independent decision not to undergo that medical treatment, neither APU nor the Host Institution shall be held liable for whatever issue may arise as a result.
- (7) If a student wishes to receive a vaccine recommended by APU, they must make a hospital appointment through APU Health Clinic. . If a vaccination is mandatory, the student must follow the instructions given at the guidance session.

5. Costs and Compensation

- (1) If a participant is unable to join or continue the program due to their failure to submit documents or payments by the deadline, injury or illness, disciplinary action, etc., or if they withdraw from the program, they will be responsible for paying any costs incurred up to that point.
- (2) If a program is changed or cancelled as a result of natural disasters, accidents, strikes, infectious disease, political unrest in the program country or region, disruptions to the normal operation of public transportation or medical services, war, terrorism, injury to or sudden hospitalization of faculty coordinators, or other unforeseen circumstances in the destination country or region, the participant will not seek compensation from either APU or the Host Institution, but will be responsible for paying any costs incurred up to that point.
- (3) If a participant has already paid their required program fees, they will receive a refund of the total amount, minus the expenses already incurred up to the point of program discontinuation, cancellation of participation, or withdrawal. The participant must understand that the refund process may take some time.
- (4) In the event that an accident, illness, or death occurs under circumstances beyond the control of APU or the Host Institution, neither APU nor the Host Institution shall be held responsible in any way, financially or otherwise.
- (5) In the event of any damage to or theft of personal belongings, traffic accidents, or criminal incidents deemed to be under circumstances beyond the control of APU or the Host Institution, the participant shall be responsible for dealing with the situation.
- (6) If the participant causes damage to a third party or APU through their own intention or negligence, the participant shall be responsible for compensation.
- (7) During the program period, if any damage occurs to the participant through unlawful acts made by third parties such as organizations, individuals, homestay families, etc., the participant will be responsible for handling any legal actions or other related matters. APU or the Host Institution shall not be held liable for such incidents.

6. Obtaining Visas

- (1) It is the responsibility of the participant to check the requirements to receive a visa covering the period from their departure to their return, and apply accordingly.
- (2) Visa requirements vary depending on the participant's nationality, the destination country/region, length of stay, etc.. Any information about required visas (including transit permits) can be found on each embassy's website, and participants must check the information themselves.
- (3) Visa application requirements are subject to change without notice, so participants must keep up to date with the latest information. Program participation via a visa received on arrival is not permitted, except in cases where a visa cannot be obtained in advance due to visa regulations of the country issuing the visa.
- (4) In the event a participant is unable to obtain a visa, their participation in the program or overseas exchange will be cancelled. Furthermore, the start date of the program or study abroad will not be changed due to the participant's failure to obtain a visa.
- (5) [International Students only] In addition to a visa for the program's host country, participants must check the expiry date of their Japanese residency permit and the conditions for a re-entry permit.

7. Course Registration Plan

- (1) When applying to the program, participants must make sure that the courses they will register and the number of credits they will earn are compatible with their course registration plan until graduation.
- (2) The university will not provide any special accommodations if an issue with a participant's course registration plan until graduation is found, so participants must apply for programs at their own risk.

8. Submission of Pledge

Participants must agree to and abide by all the conditions listed above, and submit the pledge signed by both the participant and their guarantor.
