

AY 2022 Spring Semester APU GLAD Program

1. Overview of the APU GLAD Program

The APU GLAD (Global Learning for sustAinable Development) Program is designed to offer 1st - 2nd semester students (domestic and international) an opportunity to understand global issues as global citizens and search for solutions through lectures by guest speakers and group work. The focal areas of learning in this program are as follows:

- 1) Learn several frameworks for perceiving the world as a global citizen.
- 2) Learn methods to actualize and make contributions to the world, not limited to words.
- 3) Learn what students must learn about on the university campus and through overseas studies.
- 4) Learn effective communication skills in Japanese and English through group work utilizing online.

This program was developed to provide opportunities for multicultural collaborative learning utilizing APU's multicultural, multilingual, multinational campus environment even under circumstances where students cannot physically come to campus in 2020. There would be the participants from overseas partner schools. We hope that students interested in collaborative learning with other students of diverse backgrounds will participate in this program.

5. Disclaimers and Notices

(1) Program Cancellation or Change of Program Contents, Cancellation of Participation

- ① Programs may be cancelled or program contents may be changed as a result of natural disasters; accidents; strikes; infectious disease; political unrest in the program country or region; disruptions to the normal operation of public transportation or medical services; war; terrorism; injury to, or sudden hospitalization of, faculty coordinators; or other unforeseen circumstances.
- ② In the event any of the following apply, a participant's participation in a program may be cancelled even after the announcement of acceptance. Further, in the event a participant's participation in a program is cancelled, as a rule a grade of "F" will be assigned.
  - A) In the event a participant's course participation is judged inappropriate, taking into consideration the participant's behavior and attendance
  - B) In the event the participant becomes subject to disciplinary action after the announcement of screening results
  - C) In the event that university instructions concerning the submission of documents, attendance at required guidance sessions, etc. are not followed
  - D) In the event that the university determines participation in the program is not suitable due to injury, illness, etc.
  - E) In the event of misconduct
  - F) In the event of other violations of the participant's duty as a student

(2) Withdrawal After the Announcement of Screening Results

The university undertakes screening on the assumption that, at the time of application, everyone who applies to a program wishes to participate. Therefore, as a general rule, withdrawal after the announcement of screening results is not permitted.

When applying, students should carefully review the program contents in advance and make their preparations assuming they will not withdraw. In the case of credit-granting programs, as a general rule students who withdraw will be assigned a grade of "F".

(3) Registration Plan

Students should thoroughly review their registration plan and number of credits to be earned through the program and confirm that this plan will not cause any problems with their registration plan for graduation. No special consideration will be given in the event that problems are identified after the screening results have been announced and also that an item listed in "(1) Program Cancellation or Change of Program Contents, Cancellation of Participation" has arisen. Students should assume personal responsibility when applying to any program.

Note: It is not possible to participate multiple times in a program having the same lecture content.

(4) Handling of Personal Information

Participants need to consent to having their application documents and any other documents they submit containing personal information (name, gender, date of birth, other information provided to the university in relation to the program) handled within the university for administrative purposes and participation procedures, and to have it shared with third parties (guest speakers).

(5) On Participating in a Program

Whether or not a program experience is rewarding depends greatly on the attitude and effort of the participants themselves. Participants need to have the flexibility to accept the different cultures found abroad and a positive attitude towards learning. Each participant should firmly set goals for participating in the program. Further, attendance at the guidance session and the pre-/post-classes held before and after dispatch is mandatory. Absences without notice are not permitted. Also, students should be sure to submit all documents and assignments by their deadlines.

(6) Ratio of Domestic and International Students

Please understand that depending on the results of the applications, some groups may consist of only international or domestic students.
