I. Program Outline

The College of Sustainability and Tourism (ST) at APU has established a double degree program with the Department of Business and Tourism, Innovation and Management in Tourism Major (IMT) at Salzburg University of Applied Science, Austria (SUAS).

SUAS is located in Salzburg, Austria, a globally renowned tourist destination famous for being the birthplace of Mozart and its world-famous music scene. The program offered by SUAS focuses on tourism management and provides participants with practical experience in analyzing and deciphering real-life cases.

The objectives of this program are as follows:

- 1) A unique educational experience by combining the strengths and resources of both universities.
- 2) Obtain double degrees, thus enhancing students' academic qualifications and career prospects.
- 3) Foster interdisciplinary learning by integrating curricula from different disciplines.
- 4) Facilitate cultural exchange and global perspectives by exposing students to diverse academic environments, faculty, and student communities.
- 5) Promote international understanding and intercultural competence among students.
- 6) Provide access to a broader network of alumni, industry connections, and career opportunities.
- 7) Enhance students' personal and professional growth by offering mentorship, career counseling, and internship opportunities of both universities.
- 8) Facilitate research collaboration between faculty members and students from both universities.

Participants of this program will study 2 years at APU and 2 years at SUAS, and after completing all graduation requirements set forth by both universities will receive 2 undergraduate degrees in 4 years – Bachelor of Sustainability of Tourism (APU) and Bachelor of Arts in Business (SUAS).

4. Application Procedures

Please read the Program Outline available on the website and the following instructions carefully before completing the online application. Incomplete applications will be automatically rejected.

Step 1 Prepare the following documents

Applicants will be asked to upload 1) and 2) at the end of the online application.

1) Digital photo clearly showing the applicant's face

- The Office uses photos to match applicants and faces, thereby helping us support applicants more effectively. Provided that they are facing forward and their face is clearly visible in the photo, applicants do not need to submit an official ID photo. However, we cannot accept photos that include anyone other than the applicant.
- Applicants should be facing forward and must not be wearing a hat, a mask, sunglasses, etc.
- Please upload a photo taken in the past six months.
- The file name must match this format: "Photo_Full Name".

2) Copy of English Proficiency Score

- Applicants must submit a copy of an English language proficiency score that meets the language Requirement listed in the Application Requirements.
- Should applicants choose to submit an online score, they should submit a page upon which their name, their score, and the date of the test are clearly visible.
- English-basis students whose native language is not English must also submit English proficiency scores.
 - The Admissions Office will not return scores that were submitted for the entrance exams.
- The file name must match this format: "Score_Full Name".
E.g. Score_RITSUMEIHanako.pdf

3) Sign the Statement of Financial Support Form (Adobe Digital Signature)

The applicant and their financial sponsor must fill in the required information and sign the form digitally.

First, the applicant completes the required information and enters the name and email address of the financial sponsor. Once the applicant's information and electronic signature are complete, the financial sponsor can enter their information and provide their electronic signature.

4) For Austrian passport holders: Documentary Evidence of Academic History after Junior High School (beyond G7)

Applicants who are Austrian passport holders are required to submit a copy of an academic transcript for all schools attended after junior high school (beyond G7) in Austria. If the period of enrollment is not indicated on the academic transcript of a particular school attended, they also need to submit a record that can confirm the number of years and months of enrollment in that school. If applicants cannot provide evidence of their academic history, their application will not be accepted.

Step 2 Complete the Online Application

- Applications with incomplete essays and statement of purpose, or with responses well under the word requirement, will not be considered.
- Upon completion of the online application, please check "Send me an email receipt of my responses" before you press "Submit" on your online application to receive a copy of your application record. A copy of the application record can also be saved by clicking "Print or get PDF of answers" below the Thank you message of the submission confirmation screen.

If applicants have specific questions about the content of their application, they must present their application record to the Office. We will be unable to answer specific questions without this record.

- In the case of multiple applications by the same applicant, we will only accept the most recent one.

5. For Accepted Applicants

1) Guidance Session for Accepted Applicants

A first guidance session for applicants accepted to the program will be held on Wednesday, September 10, 2025. Details will be shared with accepted applicants at a later date.

6. Program Dismissal and Early Termination after Acceptance

Participants who do not meet all of the following conditions will be dismissed from the program.

Before dispatch

- 1) Have submitted all required documents (Consent Form, Pledge, etc.) by the stipulated deadline.
 - 2) Must have earned 14 or more credits on Wednesday, August 27, 2025
- *Applicants who registered for the session subject must have earned 14 or more credits on Monday, September 8, 2025.

After Dispatch

- 1) Participants must obtain credits for all courses they are registered for each semester at SUAS.
- 2) Participants must maintain a good academic standing at SUAS

In addition to the above, the acceptance to the program may be revoked or the program may be cancelled or terminated early if any of the conditions outlined in “AY 2025 Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University Off-campus Programs Requirements for Participation in Off-campus Programs” of “2. Cancellation of Program Participation or Dispatch” apply.

AY 2025 Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University Off-campus Programs

Requirements for Participation in Off-campus Programs

All participants in Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University Off-campus Programs (hereinafter referred to as Programs) must abide by the following.

1. Required Attitude

- (1) Participants must understand the aim and purpose of their chosen program, and should participate actively approaching their studies seriously.
- (2) Participants must conduct themselves in a dignified and honorable manner, refraining from any conduct that may harm the reputation of Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University (hereinafter, "APU") and the host university or institution (hereinafter, "Host Institution").
- (3) Participants must act in accordance with the regulations of APU, the rules of the Host Institution, Japanese law and the laws and regulations of the host country or region for the full duration of the program. Also, participants must follow all instructions from staff and faculty at both APU and the Host Institution during the program.
- (4) Participants must attend all pre-program and post-program classes, guidance sessions, and so on held before and after dispatch.
- (5) Withdrawals after the selection result announcement will not be accepted since the selection process assumes that the applicants intend to participate in the program at the time of application.
- (6) Participants must not protest if their participation in a program is cancelled or if they are ordered to return to Japan due to breaching these Requirements for Participation in Programs.

2. Cancellation of Program Participation or Dispatch

(1) [All Programs (excluding Exchange, Double Degree programs, Campus Asia program, and Short-term Summer/Winter programs)]

All participants must complete all program participation procedures such as submitting the required documents, paying program fees, obtaining passports and visas, completing the procedures for purchasing travel insurance, and so on by the designated deadlines. If a participant fails to submit documents, pay program fees, obtain a passport or visa, or complete insurance procedures by the deadline for any reason, they will be removed from the program.

(2) [Exchange, Double Degree programs, Campus Asia program, and Short-term Summer/Winter programs]]

If a participant fails to submit documents, pay program fees, obtain a passport or visa, or complete insurance procedures by the deadline, they may be removed from the program.

- (3) In addition to the above, the student's participation in the program may be cancelled even after the results have been announced in any of the following cases apply.

- A) If it is determined that it is not appropriate for the student to join the program, taking into account their attitude and attendance status
- B) If the participant is subject to disciplinary action after the program results are announced
- C) If APU determines that it is not appropriate for the student to study abroad due to injury, illness, etc.
- D) If the participant engages in prohibited acts during the program period
- E) If the participant does not meet the designated requirements to continue the program
- F) If the participant loses their student status at APU.
- G) In the case of any other violations of the duties of the student

- (4) If a student's participation is cancelled, they shall be given a "F" grade. (If participation is cancelled before the pre-program classes start, then their course registration will be "deleted." However, this item does not apply to Exchange, Double Degree programs, Campus Asia programs, and Short-term summer /Winter programs.)

- (5) In the cases below, APU may make the decision to cancel student dispatch.

- A) If the destination country or region is in an area designated Danger Level 2 or above by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. However, if an infectious disease risk advisory is issued due to the spread of a new infectious disease, decisions will be made depending on the situation.
- B) If there are natural disasters, accidents, strikes, infectious disease, political unrest, disruptions to the normal operation of public transportation or medical services, war, terrorism, injury to or sudden hospitalization of faculty coordinators, or other unforeseen circumstances in the destination country or region that make it difficult for the host institution to provide support for the dispatched students due to force majeure.
- C) If the Host Institution decides to stop accepting dispatched APU students.

3. Meeting and Dismissal On-site

[All overseas programs (excluding FIRST, Service Learning)]

- (1) Participants will meet and be dismissed on-site during the program period, and are responsible for ensuring their own safety during their travels.
- (2) Participants are responsible for arranging their own flight tickets, and submitting their itinerary to APU.
- (3) Once an itinerary has been submitted to APU, it should not be changed without valid reason. If changes are made, the revised itinerary must be resubmitted to APU.
- (4) APU is not responsible for the participant's conduct outside the travel period required for program participation, and students must take responsibility for their own conduct outside of this period.

[FIRST, Service Learning]

- (1) Participants are not permitted to meet or be dismissed on-site, and they cannot enter the country on their own before the start of the program period.

- (2) After the end of the program period, participants must immediately return to Japan. They may not extend their period of stay in the host country.

4. Health and Safety Management

- (1) [All Overseas Programs (excluding FIRST, Service Learning)] Before departure, participants must purchase an overseas health and travel insurance policy designated by APU for the entire duration of their travel period, from the date of their departure from Japan until the date of their re-entry to Japan. In addition, participants are also required to enroll in the risk management system for the period specified by APU.
- [FIRST, Service Learning] Before departure, participants must purchase overseas travel insurance and enroll in the risk management system as designated by APU.
- [Domestic Programs] Participants must purchase domestic travel insurance and enroll in the risk management system as designated by APU.
- (2) Participants are responsible for managing their own personal health. Also, they must report any health conditions and required learning support using the designated form.
- (3) Participants must report if they have any pre-existing health conditions.
- (4) Should a participant require hospitalization or medical treatment, they must immediately inform APU and the Host Institution and follow staff and faculty instructions. The participant will be responsible for any medical expenses above the amount that is covered by their insurance.
- (5) In the event that a participant needs emergency medical attention or surgery but there is insufficient time to obtain the consent of the student or guarantor, the student agrees to be treated at the discretion of a doctor or faculty/staff from APU or the Host Institution.
- (6) If APU or the Host Institution determines that the participant requires medical treatment, and the participant makes the independent decision not to undergo that medical treatment, neither APU nor the Host Institution shall be held liable for whatever issue may arise as a result.
- (7) If a student wishes to receive a vaccine recommended by APU, they must make a hospital appointment through APU Health Clinic. . If a vaccination is mandatory, the student must follow the instructions given at the guidance session.

5. Costs and Compensation

- (1) If a participant is unable to join or continue the program due to their failure to submit documents or payments by the deadline, injury or illness, disciplinary action, etc., or if they withdraw from the program, they will be responsible for paying any costs incurred up to that point.
- (2) If a program is changed or cancelled as a result of natural disasters, accidents, strikes, infectious disease, political unrest in the program country or region, disruptions to the normal operation of public transportation or medical services, war, terrorism, injury to or sudden hospitalization of faculty coordinators, or other unforeseen circumstances in the destination country or region, the participant will not seek compensation from either APU or the Host Institution, but will be responsible for paying any costs incurred up to that point.
- (3) If a participant has already paid their required program fees, they will receive a refund of the total amount, minus the expenses already incurred up to the point of program discontinuation, cancellation of participation, or withdrawal. The participant must understand that the refund process may take some time.
- (4) In the event that an accident, illness, or death occurs under circumstances beyond the control of APU or the Host Institution, neither APU nor the Host Institution shall be held responsible in any way, financially or otherwise.
- (5) In the event of any damage to or theft of personal belongings, traffic accidents, or criminal incidents deemed to be under circumstances beyond the control of APU or the Host Institution, the participant shall be responsible for dealing with the situation.
- (6) If the participant causes damage to a third party or APU through their own intention or negligence, the participant shall be responsible for compensation.
- (7) During the program period, if any damage occurs to the participant through unlawful acts made by third parties such as organizations, individuals, homestay families, etc., the participant will be responsible for handling any legal actions or other related matters. APU or the Host Institution shall not be held liable for such incidents.

6. Obtaining Visas

- (1) It is the responsibility of the participant to check the requirements to receive a visa covering the period from their departure to their return, and apply accordingly.
- (2) Visa requirements vary depending on the participant's nationality, the destination country/region, length of stay, etc.. Any information about required visas (including transit permits) can be found on each embassy's website, and participants must check the information themselves.
- (3) Visa application requirements are subject to change without notice, so participants must keep up to date with the latest information. Program participation via a visa received on arrival is not permitted, except in cases where a visa cannot be obtained in advance due to visa regulations of the country issuing the visa.
- (4) In the event a participant is unable to obtain a visa, their participation in the program or overseas exchange will be cancelled. Furthermore, the start date of the program or study abroad will not be changed due to the participant's failure to obtain a visa.
- (5) [International Students only] In addition to a visa for the program's host country, participants must check the expiry date of their Japanese residency permit and the conditions for a re-entry permit.

7. Course Registration Plan

- (1) When applying to the program, participants must make sure that the courses they will register and the number of credits they will earn are compatible with their course registration plan until graduation.
- (2) The university will not provide any special accommodations if an issue with a participant's course registration plan until graduation is found, so participants must apply for programs at their own risk.

8. Submission of Pledge

Participants must agree to and abide by all the conditions listed above, and submit the pledge signed by both the participant and their guarantor.

PLEDGE
