Notes on Participation

【Important】

Before applying, please read through all the points listed in the attachment at the end of this Application Information – “Requirements for Participation in Off-campus Programs”. Conditions for participation which are unique to this program are listed below. Please read through them carefully, before considering the application.

1. Fees

Program fee

- Participation in the program requires payment of the program fee (hereinafter referred to as the “program fee”). Estimated fees for the program is listed in the program info sheet.
For overseas programs, the finalized fees may exceed the estimated amount due to the rising demand for overseas travel and the depreciation of the Japanese Yen etc.
- The final program fee (payment amount) will be notified at the time of announcement of the screening results.
- Students are responsible for payment of the program fee by the deadline: November 13 (Fri), 2:00PM.
- If a student fails to pay the fee by the deadline, their participation in the program will be cancelled for any reason. In such a case, they will be responsible for any fees already incurred such as fees that had to be arranged up to that point, cancellation fees, and fees that should be divided by the number of participants.
- The fees listed below are only estimates as a rough guide, and the actual amount will be the total amount of various expenses already incurred at the time your participation is cancelled.
 - Domestic program: Thousands of yen to tens of thousands of yen
 - Overseas program: Tens of thousands to hundreds of thousands of yen

Insurance * Details will be provided at the Guidance for the confirmed participants.

(Domestic programs with overnight stay)

- Including cases where students have already individually taken out an insurance policy, program participants must take out domestic travel insurance as designated by APU.
- The insurance period is from the date of the meeting on-site to the date of dismissal, and APU will arrange for the insurance application.

(Domestic programs without overnight stay)

- “Gakkensai; Personal Accident Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and Research”, which all students are covered by upon enrollment at APU, applies to program activities as well. Therefore, there is no need to purchase separate insurance.

(Overseas programs)

- Including cases where students have already individually taken out an insurance policy, program participants must take out overseas travel insurance as designated by APU and the host institution, join a risk management system, and so on.
- The insurance coverage period must include all days from the date of departure from Japan to the date of return to Japan, regardless of the program duration. Insurance premiums are calculated based on the dates of travel abroad, but approximate prices are as follows.

Number of days of travel	The overseas travel insurance premiums	The risk management system fee
For up to 7 days	Approx. 6,500 yen	Approx. 1,681 yen
For up to 14 days	Approx. 10,000 yen	Approx. 2,262 yen
For up to 21 days	Approx. 12,000 yen	Approx. 2,843 yen
For up to 34 days	Approx. 14,000 yen	Approx. 5,022 yen

(Reference)The overseas travel insurance premiums URL: <https://www.creohuman.co.jp/business/travel-ins/>

- In principle, the insurance plan you will purchase will be the “Plan S”. If you wish to purchase “Plan A” or “Plan B”, please follow the instruction from Creo-human.
- Application schedule of overseas travel insurance (Details will be provided at the Guidance for the confirmed participants)

Date	Schedule
Nov 6 (Fri)	University informs of insurance procedures at the time of screening results announcement.

Nov 11 (Wed)	University explains procedures on purchasing overseas travel insurance at the guidance for the confirmed participants.
Nov 25 (Wed)	Submission due for Overseas Travel Insurance Declaration Form (incl. date of departure from Japan and date of return to Japan) (For those who wish to change the insurance plan)
	Submission due for changing the insurance plan
~ Nov 26 (Thu)	Creo-human emails participants about insurance premiums
Dec 6 (Sun)	Payment due for paying the insurance premiums
Early Jan~	Outreach and Research Office will distribute Overseas Travel Insurance Certificate

2. Required Procedures for Participation

Details will be provided at the Guidance for the confirmed participants.

Transportation and Accommodation “to” the Practicum Site (Before and after the practicum)

[For both domestic and overseas programs]

- Please arrange your own transportation to and from the on-site meeting place. If accommodation is required prior to the start of the practicum in order to reach the meeting place, please make your own accommodation arrangements. All transportation and accommodation after dismissal are the responsibility of each participant.

[For overseas programs]

- You will not be allowed to participate in the Off-campus programs if any of the countries or regions on your route from departure to return to Japan are classified as Level 2 or higher risk by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan.

Transportation and Accommodation During the Practicum

[For both domestic and oversea programs]

- Depending on the programs, transportation and accommodation during the practicum may be arranged by the university, or students may be required to make their own arrangements under the guidance of their instructor. If accommodation is designated by the university or instructor, staying at places other than the designated accommodation (such as family, relatives, or friends' homes) is not permitted. Details will be provided for each program after students have been selected.

3. Disclaimer and Precautions

Stricter deadlines for various submissions and program fees related to the program.

- If you are accepted into a program, the Outreach and Research Office will inform you of the required documents to be submitted for each program (e.g., pledge, surveys, etc.) and payment of the program fee.
- You are responsible for paying and submitting all required documents and program fees by the designated deadlines. Failure to submit all required documents and fees by the designated deadlines will result in cancellation of your participation in the program for any reason.
- If you are unable to participate in the program due to failure to submit materials or pay the program fee by the designated deadline, you must pay any fees incurred up to that point.

Precautions for Course Registration

- Students cannot enroll in or participate in the program if the pre- program classes, practicum and/or post-program classes overlap with regular classes or make-up classes, regular or make-up examinations, course registration periods, extracurricular activities, or duties/training such as SA/RA. Students are therefore required to check the academic calendar, activity schedules, and program periods in advance.
- Students may apply to the program even if the program period (pre-program classes, practicum and post-program classes) of the Glocal Immersion overlaps with the 2nd Quarter and Winter Session courses of the AY2026 Fall semester for which you have already registered. However, if you wish to enroll in the Glocal Immersion, you must make sure to remove your course registration for 2nd Quarter and Winter Session courses of the AY2026 Fall semester during the Course Drop Period 2.
- No special consideration will be given to students whose pre/post-program classes or practicum periods overlap with extra-curricular activities, or training programs.

Cancellation or Withdrawal of Participation

- As stated above, failure to submit all required submissions and pay program fees by the designated deadline will result in cancellation of participation in the program.

- In principle, withdrawal after application will not be accepted.
- Even for unavoidable reasons (including cases of suspension or other student disciplinary action), students who cancel or withdraw from the program after their participation has been confirmed must pay the fees incurred up to that point.

4. Program Cancellation

The University will make the decision to cancel student dispatch if the following conditions are met:

- A) If the destination country or region is in an area designated Danger Level 2 or above by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. However, if an infectious disease risk advisory is issued due to the spread of a new infectious disease, decisions will be made depending on the situation.
 - B) If there are natural disasters, accidents, strikes, infectious disease, political unrest, disruptions to the normal operation of public transportation or medical services, war, terrorism, injury to or sudden hospitalization of faculty coordinators, or other unforeseen circumstances in the destination country or region that make it difficult for the host institution to provide support for the dispatched students due to force majeure.
 - C) If the Host Institution decides to stop accepting dispatched APU students.
- In the above cases, you must pay any fees incurred up to that point.

5. Risk Management & Health Monitoring During the Program

Students will have to study in an environment that is different from their daily life while staying overnight at the program destination. Students are asked to take responsibility for risk management and monitoring their health during the program.

AY 2026 Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University Off-campus Programs

Requirements for Participation in Off-campus Programs

All participants in Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University Off-campus Programs (hereinafter referred to as Programs) must abide by the following.

1. Required Attitude

- (1) Participants must understand the aim and purpose of their chosen program, and should participate actively approaching their studies seriously.
- (2) Participants must conduct themselves in a dignified and honorable manner, refraining from any conduct that may harm the reputation of Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University (hereinafter, "APU") and the host university or institution (hereinafter, "Host Institution").
- (3) Participants must act in accordance with the regulations of APU, the rules of the Host Institution, Japanese law and the laws and regulations of the host country or region for the full duration of the program. Also, participants must follow all instructions from staff and faculty at both APU and the Host Institution during the program.
- (4) Participants must attend all pre-program and post-program classes, guidance sessions, and so on held before and after dispatch.
- (5) Withdrawals after the selection result announcement will not be accepted since the selection process assumes that the applicants intend to participate in the program at the time of application.
- (6) Participants must not protest if their participation in a program is cancelled or if they are ordered to return to Japan due to breaching these Requirements for Participation in Programs.

2. Cancellation of Program Participation or Dispatch

(1) [All Programs (excluding Exchange, Double Degree programs, and Short-term Summer/Winter programs)]

All participants must complete all program participation procedures such as submitting the required documents, paying program fees, obtaining passports and visas, completing the procedures for purchasing travel insurance, and so on by the designated deadlines. If a participant fails to submit documents, pay program fees, obtain a passport or visa, or complete insurance procedures by the deadline for any reason, they will be removed from the program.

(2) [Exchange, Double Degree programs, and Short-term Summer/Winter programs]

All participants must complete all program participation procedures such as submitting the required documents, paying program fees, obtaining passports and visas, completing the procedures for purchasing travel insurance, and so on by the designated deadlines. If a participant fails to submit documents, pay program fees, obtain a passport or visa, or complete insurance procedures by the deadline, they may be removed from the program.

- (3) In addition to the above, the student's participation in the program may be cancelled even after the results have been announced in any of the following cases apply.
 - A) If it is determined that it is not appropriate for the student to join the program, taking into account their attitude and attendance status
 - B) If the participant is subject to disciplinary action after the program results are announced
 - C) If APU determines that it is not appropriate for the student to study abroad due to injury, illness, etc.
 - D) If the participant engages in prohibited acts during the program period
 - E) If the participant does not meet the designated requirements to continue the program
 - F) If the participant loses their student status at APU.
 - G) In the case of any other violations of the duties of the student
- (4) If a student's participation is cancelled, they shall be given a "F" grade. (If participation is cancelled before the pre-program classes start, then their course registration will be "deleted." However, this item does not apply to Exchange, Double Degree programs, and Short-term summer/Winter programs.)
- (5) In the cases below, APU may make the decision to cancel student dispatch.
 - A) If the destination country or region is in an area designated Danger Level 2 or above by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. However, if an infectious disease risk advisory is issued due to the spread of a new infectious disease, decisions will be made depending on the situation.
 - B) If there are natural disasters, accidents, strikes, infectious disease, political unrest, disruptions to the normal operation of public transportation or medical services, war, terrorism, or other unforeseen circumstances in the destination country or region that make it difficult for the host institution to provide support for the dispatched students due to force majeure.
 - C) If the Host Institution decides to stop accepting dispatched APU students.

3. Meeting and Dismissal On-site

[All overseas programs (excluding FIRST, Service Learning)]

- (1) Participants will meet and be dismissed on-site during the program period, and are responsible for ensuring their own safety during their travels.
- (2) Participants are responsible for arranging their own flight tickets, and submitting their itinerary to APU.
- (3) Once an itinerary has been submitted to APU, it should not be changed without valid reason. If changes are made, the revised itinerary must be resubmitted to APU.
- (4) APU is not responsible for the participant's conduct outside the travel period required for program participation, and students must take responsibility for their own conduct outside of this period.

[FIRST, Service Learning]

- (1) Participants are not permitted to meet or be dismissed on-site, and they cannot enter the country on their own before the start of the program period.
- (2) After the end of the program period, participants must immediately return to Japan. They may not extend their period of stay in the host country.

4. Health and Safety Management

- (1) [All Overseas Programs (excluding FIRST, Service Learning)] Before departure, participants must purchase an overseas health and travel insurance policy designated by APU for the entire duration of their travel period, from the date of their departure from Japan until the date of their re-entry to Japan. In addition, participants are also required to enroll in the risk management system for the period specified by APU.
[FIRST, Service Learning] Before departure, participants must purchase overseas travel insurance and enroll in the risk management system as designated by APU.
[Domestic Programs] Participants must purchase domestic travel insurance and enroll in the risk management system as designated by APU.
- (2) Participants are responsible for managing their own personal health. Also, they must report any health conditions and required learning support using the designated form.
- (3) Participants must report if they have any pre-existing health conditions.
- (4) Should a participant require hospitalization or medical treatment, they must immediately inform APU and the Host Institution and follow staff and faculty instructions. The participant will be responsible for any medical expenses above the amount that is covered by their insurance.
- (5) In the event that a participant needs emergency medical attention or surgery but there is insufficient time to obtain the consent of the student or guarantor, the student agrees to be treated at the discretion of a doctor or faculty/staff from APU or the Host Institution.
- (6) If APU or the Host Institution determines that the participant requires medical treatment, and the participant makes the independent decision not to undergo that medical treatment, neither APU nor the Host Institution shall be held liable for whatever issue may arise as a result.
- (7) If a student wishes to receive a vaccine recommended by APU, they must make a hospital appointment through APU Health Clinic. . If a vaccination is mandatory, the student must follow the instructions given at the guidance session.

5. Costs and Compensation

- (1) If a participant is unable to join or continue the program due to their failure to submit documents or payments by the deadline, injury or illness, disciplinary action, etc., or if they withdraw from the program, they will be responsible for paying any costs incurred up to that point.
- (2) If a program is changed or cancelled as a result of natural disasters, accidents, strikes, infectious disease, political unrest in the program country or region, disruptions to the normal operation of public transportation or medical services, war, terrorism, or other unforeseen circumstances in the destination country or region, the participant will not seek compensation from either APU or the Host Institution, but will be responsible for paying any costs incurred up to that point.
- (3) If a participant has already paid their required program fees, they will receive a refund of the total amount, minus the expenses already incurred up to the point of program discontinuation, cancellation of participation, or withdrawal. The participant must understand that the refund process may take some time.
- (4) In the event that an accident, illness, or death occurs under circumstances beyond the control of APU or the Host Institution, neither APU nor the Host Institution shall be held responsible in any way, financially or otherwise.
- (5) In the event of any damage to or theft of personal belongings, traffic accidents, or criminal incidents deemed to be under circumstances beyond the control of APU or the Host Institution, the participant shall be responsible for dealing with the situation.
- (6) If the participant causes damage to a third party or APU through their own intention or negligence, the participant shall be responsible for compensation.
- (7) During the program period, if any damage occurs to the participant through unlawful acts made by third parties such as organizations, individuals, homestay families, etc., the participant will be responsible for handling any legal actions or other related matters. APU or the Host Institution shall not be held liable for such incidents.

6. Obtaining Visas

- (1) It is the responsibility of the participant to check the requirements to receive a visa covering the period from their departure to their return, and apply accordingly.
- (2) Visa requirements vary depending on the participant's nationality, the destination country/region, length of stay, etc.. Any information about required visas (including transit permits) can be found on each embassy's website, and participants must check the information themselves.
- (3) Visa application requirements are subject to change without notice, so participants must keep up to date with the latest information. Program participation via a visa received on arrival is not permitted, except in cases where a visa cannot be obtained in advance due to visa regulations of the country issuing the visa.
- (4) In the event a participant is unable to obtain a visa, their participation in the program or overseas exchange will be cancelled. Furthermore, the start date of the program or study abroad will not be changed due to the participant's failure to obtain a visa.
- (5) [International Students only] In addition to a visa for the program's host country, participants must check the expiry date of their Japanese residency permit and the conditions for a re-entry permit.

7. Course Registration Plan

- (1) When applying to the program, participants must make sure that the courses they will register and the number of credits they will earn are compatible with their course registration plan until graduation.
- (2) The university will not provide any special accommodations if an issue with a participant's course registration plan until graduation is found, so participants must apply for programs at their own risk.

8. Submission of Pledge

Participants must agree to and abide by all the conditions listed above, and submit the pledge signed by both the participant and their guarantor.

PLEDGE
