

Evaluation Criteria	Graduation Report	Graduation thesis (i.e., graduation report with additional criteria)
1)Research Question/Topic	The objectives of the study are appropriate and are explained within the context of current debates and scholarly literature in the relevant field.	The objectives of the study are appropriate and are explained within the context of current debates and scholarly literature in the relevant field.
2)Literature Review	The literature review relevant to the research topic must be included.	The problem setting (research objective, Research question) is based on (extensive) references and citations of existing academic results in related fields.
3) Methodology	-	Appropriate method(s) should be used to draw conclusions from the research objectives.
4) Structure	Be accurately and logically structured.	Be accurately and logically structured.
5) Analysis	Solid reasons for the conclusions must be provided.	Research findings and conclusions are drawn using appropriate evidence.
6) Implication (academic and social perspectives)	-	Significance to academia, practice, and society.
7) Writing	Follow a proper academic writing formatting standard and be free of plagiarism.	Follow a proper academic writing formatting standard and be free of plagiarism.