

Regarding the AP Language Native Speakers

- If you have attended school in a country or region specified in (1) for the language you wish to study, even if you are not a native speaker of the language, you must consult with the course instructor before registering for the course.

→ If you either

A) have attended school in a country or region specified in (1) for the language you wish to study, even if you are not a native speaker of the language, or

B) your nationality is one of the countries or regions shown in (1), you must consult with the course instructor before registering for the course.

- If you have attended school in a country, region, or at an institution specified in (2), even if the language you wish to study is not your native, official, or a common language in your area, you must consult with the course instructor before registering for the course.

→ If you have either

A) attended school in a country, region, or institution specified in (2), even if the language you wish to study is not your native, official, or common language, or

B) your nationality matches a country or region specified in (1), you must consult with the course instructor before registering for the course.

- If your country/nationality is shown in (1) or (2) below and you register for a course without consulting with the course instructor in advance, the Academic Office will delete your course registration.

<Who to Contact for Each Language>

Chinese: ZHANG Wenqing (zhangwq@apu.ac.jp)

Korean: OH Young Min (ym-oh@apu.ac.jp)

Malay/Indonesian: SRI Budi Lestari (tari0828@apu.ac.jp)

Spanish: BARRASO Victor (barraso@apu.ac.jp)

Thai: LIMTHANANUNTHA P. (phenlim@apu.ac.jp)

Vietnamese: NGUYEN Hoang Minh (minhnh28@apu.ac.jp)

Language	1. Students who have attended school in the following countries or regions will be considered native speakers of the corresponding AP language and will not be allowed to enroll in that AP language course. However, if the corresponding AP language is not their native language, they must consult with the instructor in advance.	2. Students who have attended school in the following countries or regions will be considered native speakers or users of the official/common language of the corresponding AP language and, in principle, will not be allowed to enroll in that AP language course. However, if the corresponding AP language is not their native language, they must consult with the instructor in advance.
Chinese	People's Republic of China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Macau	Singapore, Malaysia, graduates of Chinese schools in Japan or other regions overseas
Korean	South Korea, North Korea	Yanbian Korean Autonomous Prefecture in China, graduates of Korean schools in Japan or other regions overseas
Malay/Indonesian	Indonesia	Malaysia, East Timor, graduates of Indonesian schools in Japan or other regions overseas
Spanish	Spain, Mexico, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Paraguay, Peru, Uruguay, Venezuela, Equatorial Guinea	graduates of schools where Spanish is the official language in Japan or other regions overseas
Thai	Thailand	graduates of Thai schools in Japan or other regions overseas
Vietnamese	Vietnam	graduates of Vietnamese schools in Japan or other regions overseas