2. Academic Progression and Graduation

2-1. Academic Progression

Course length refers to the period of time required to complete a course's curriculum. At APU, this is four years for undergraduate courses. The maximum term of enrollment refers to the maximum period of time a student can remain enrolled at APU, which is eight years for undergraduate courses.

At APU, the academic year is split into the Spring Semester (April 1 – September 20) and the Fall Semester (September 21 – March 31 following year). In addition, students can enroll at APU from April or September each year.

APU uses two methods to express a student's academic year: year level and semester level. Year level is counted by how many years a student has been enrolled at APU, whereas semester level is based on how many semesters a student has been enrolled for.

Students become first-year students upon enrollment and progress to the next year and semester level based on how long they have been enrolled at APU, regardless of how many credits they have completed.

Students who have not completed their graduation requirements by the end of their 4th year (8th semester) will become 5th-year students, then 6th-year students, and so on. However, students cannot remain enrolled at APU for longer than eight years (sixteen semesters). It is not possible to repeat a year either.

The following tables demonstrate the relationship between year level and semester level.

Students who Enroll in Spring

Semester	Spring	Fall	Spring	Fall	Spring	Fall	Spring	Fall
Year Level	1st Year		2nd Year		3rd Year		4th Year
Semester Level.	1st Semester Student	2nd Semester Student	3rd Semester Student	4th Semester Student	5th Semester Student	6th Semester Student	7th Semester Student	8th Semester Student

Students who Enroll in Fall

Semester	Fall	Spring	Fall	Spring	Fall	Spring	Fall	Spring
Year Level	1st Year		2nd Year		3rd Year		4th Year
Semester Level.	1st Semester Student	2nd Semester Student	3rd Semester Student	4th Semester Student	5th Semester Student	6th Semester Student	7th Semester Student	8th Semester Student

2-2. Graduation

Students must fulfill all of the following requirements to graduate from APU's undergraduate colleges. Students who have already fulfilled these requirements cannot remain enrolled at APU.

Requirement 1: Be enrolled at APU for at least four years

However, this requirement is different for the following students:

- Accelerated Graduation Program Students: Be enrolled for at least three years
- 2nd-Year Transfer Students: Be enrolled for at least three years
- 3rd-Year Transfer Students: Be enrolled for at least two years

Requirement 2: Complete all the credits required to graduate

Students must complete a total of at least 124 credits and fulfil all the credit requirements specified by their respective curriculum to graduate. For more details, please check the pages for your college and curriculum.

Classroom Changes

Information on temporary or permanent classroom changes will be posted on Campus Terminal.

3. Class Evaluation Survey

Every semester, APU administers the 'Class Evaluation Survey' at the end of each course to get meaningful feedback from students on their learning in the class. This allows students to directly contribute to improving the quality of courses offered at APU, while also providing you an opportunity to reflect on your participation and engagement in class.

Purpose of Publishing Class Evaluation Survey Results

We publish the class Evaluation Survey Results to give students infomation about course content, teaching methods, course design, and other items on reference when choosing their courses.

Points to Consider When Viewing the Results

When viewing the class evaluation survey results, it should be carefully noted that the data presented is based on evaluations from students who have previously taken the course. Please be aware that the data is NOT a complete representation of the course and is for reference purposes only. Moreover, please note that the number of registered students, response rate, and other factors vary by course subject and may affect the reliability of the data. Students are strongly encouraged to refer to the 'no. of students', 'no. of responses', and 'response rate' when considering each course.

Class Absences due to Infectious Disease

Students who contract an infectious disease recognized by Japan's School Health and Safety Act will have their attendance "suspended" for the period indicated by their doctor to prevent the spread of disease on campus. If your attendance is "suspended", you are not allowed to come to APU until the period of suspended attendance ends. If you contract a legally-recognized infectious disease, the Academic Office will only notify your professors that your attendance has been suspended if you complete the necessary procedures. If you are unable to attend classes due to your attendance being "suspended", completing all the necessary procedures with the office does not mean that your absence will automatically be "treated as attendance" instead. Your professors will decide how to treat any class absences during your period of suspended attendance. Please make sure you contact your professors about catching up on any class content and assignments you missed during your period of suspended attendance.

6. Course Formats

Courses at APU are offered in one of two formats: "In-person" or "Distance Learning (Online / On Demand)."

The format of each course can be checked from "2. Course Timetable | | " under "Chapter 2: Classes & Syllabus."

Number of Credits from "Distance Learning Courses" Included in Credits Counted Toward Graduation

Under the Standards for the Establishment of Universities and APU's University Regulations, the maximum number of credits from Distance Learning Courses that can be counted towards graduation is 60 credits. If a student earns more than 60 credits from applicable courses, the additional credits will not count toward the number of credits needed for graduation. In addition, please note that even if a student earns more than 60 credits for applicable courses, this will not be indicated under "Subjects Not Counted Towards Graduation" on the "Grade Report [Credit Completion]" page of Campusmate.

As such, students must check and manage the number of credits earned through Distance Learning Courses themselves and make sure they do not exceed 60 credits.

(Example)

As shown in the figure below, both Student A and Student B have earned 124 credits. However, Student B has earned 64 credits from Distance Learning Courses. Only a maximum of 60 credits from Distance Learning Courses can count toward graduation, so the additional 4 credits (blue shaded area) are not recognized as counting towards their graduation requirements. For this reason, Student B has only earned 120 credits that count toward graduation.

List of Distance Learning Courses (from AY 2023 onwards)

Please check which courses (by year offered and subject name) are designated as "Distance Learning Courses" by the university from the document below. A maximum of 60 credits earned from the courses listed in this document may be counted towards graduation requirements. Please see "Subjects for Transferred Credits" below for details on how transferred credits are handled.

List of Distance Learning Courses (from AY 2023 onwards) Updated March 1, 2024

Courses not listed in the document above are not included in the 60-credit maximum as they were offered online as a special measure during the COVID-19 Pandemic. These courses will count toward graduation as normal.

However, regardless of the actual course format, there are some courses whose credits do not count toward graduation. Please note that credits from these courses are not included in the number of credits earned for graduation. Students should check the "Credit Requirement Area on Campusmate" section of the Subject List for their own college and curriculum for details about applicable subjects. (Example) "Academic Advising"

Please check below for details on course formats.

In-Person Courses

Classes are held in person. However, for some courses, a number of classes may be held online (via Zoom). In that case, students will need to attend that particular class online via Zoom.

Distance Learning Courses

Classes are held online (via Zoom or on-demand). However, for some courses, a number of classes may be held in person. In that case, students will need to attend the class in-person in the classroom.

How to Check the Format of Each Class Session

Information about the format of each class (in person/online/on demand) is written under the "Overview of Each Class" section on the syllabus. Please be sure to check the syllabus to confirm the format for each class.

(Example)

1st Class (April 9th, In Person)

- Introduction and overview of the course
- The state of education

2nd Class (April 12th, Online)

Difference between Online and On-Demand

Online	Classes are held in real-time. The class will be held interactively via Zoom on the day and period indicated on the Course Timetable.
On- Demand	Materials or recorded lectures are uploaded to Moodle or another platform, and students must watch them and submit any assignments within the set period. In principle, materials will be made available on the day and period listed on the Course Timetable.

Subjects for Transferred Credits

Some of the subjects used for credit transfer count as Distance Learning Sourses. These courses have "(Distance Learning)" written after the subject name on the "Credit Transfer Subject List" for the corresponding college and curriculum. Credits from these courses are also included in the 60-credit maximum for Distance Learning credits that can be counted toward graduation. Please check the "Credit Transfer Subject List" for each college below.

1. Credits

1-1. Credit System

Coursework at APU is based on the credit system. The number of credits earned per course is determined by the Japanese University Establishment Criteria, and is based upon the number of class hours (including study conducted outside of class, homework, etc.).

Students who receive a passing grade in a class for which they are registered receive credits based on the hours completed.

<Example>

Course Type	Number of Classes	Number of Credits
Lecture Course	14 classes + out-of-class study, homework, etc.	2
Language Course	56 classes + out-of-class study, homework, etc.	4

1-2. Credits and Course Type

Course Type	Credits	Offered	Classes per Week	Total No. of Classes
Lecture	2	Quarter-basis (2 months)	2	14
	2	Semester-basis (4 months)	1	14
Seminar	2	Semester-basis (4 months)	1	14
Language	4	Semester-basis	4	56
	2	(4 months)	2	28

1-3. From Registration to Credit Completion

1. Plan your Course of Study

Looking towards graduation, students should create a study plan while being aware of what they will study over the course of four years.

2. Register for Courses

Please be sure to register for the courses you would like to take during the Course Registration Period.

3. Take Courses

Please carry out course preparation, attendance, and review thoroughly.

4. Grade Evaluation

The professor will provide a grade for daily points (such as participation in class), exams, and reports.

5. Success

When a passing grade is obtained, students will receive credits.

1. What is Course Registration?

1-1. What is the Course Registration?

Course registration is the process of each student registering for classes they would like to take, as well as a declaration of intent. Course registration is the most important part of course planning, and absolutely necessary in order to attend classes, receive credits, and graduate. Please use extra caution when registering for classes to ensure that you are able to progress smoothly in your study plan.

1-2. Credit Registration Limits

- There is a fixed maximum number of credits for which students may register each semester.
- There are no minimum credit requirements per semester.
- However, there are minimum requirements when applying for certain scholarships and programs.
- As the number of credits registered may impact visa status for international students, please consult the Student Office in this matter.

Maximum Number of Credits

Semester	Regular Students	Accelerated Graduation Program Students
1st Semester	18 Credits	_
2nd Semester	18 Credits	_
3rd Semester	20 Credits	24 Credits
4th Semester	20 Credits	24 Credits
5th Semester	20 Credits	24 Credits
6th Semester	20 Credits	24 Credits
7th Semester	24 Credits	24 Credits
8th Semester and over	24 Credits	24 Credits

1-3. Course Registration Overview

In order to take classes, students must first register for courses during "Course Registration Periods" held before each semester begins.
[Registration Steps]
1. Check th course registration schedule.
2. View syllabi and decide on which subjects to register.
3. Using the Subject List for your college and curriculum, confirm the subject fields, prerequisites, and Area of Study for each subject.
4. Check the course timetable.
5. Register for courses online during the designated Registration Period via Campusmate.
6. After completing course registration, print or save the "Registration Confirmation Screen."
7. Attend classes.
8. If desired, make any course registration changes during the appropriate Correction Period.

[Notes]

- Course Registration Period A is only available to current APU students. Newly enrolled, re-enrolled, and reinstated students will begin registration from Course Registration Period B.
- Automatically registered subjects and designated classes will be registered by the University.

1-5. Trading Registered Courses with Other Students

Course registration is an incredibly important procedure for studying at university. Trading or exchanging registered courses violates APU's rules regarding course registration.

Registering for courses you do not plan on taking with the intent of trading or exchanging them is a severe infringement on other students' rights to study as it prevents them from taking courses they earnestly want to study. Furthermore, the following acts are all subject to disciplinary action: trading a registered course with another student, asking another student to trade a registered course with you, actually receiving a traded course from another student, and intending to trade a course even if you did not in the end.

Dean of Academic Affairs Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University

1-6. Important Notes for Course Registration

- Students cannot register over the credit limit per semester.
- Students cannot register for subjects held during the same period on the same day, unless the subjects are held during different quarters.
- Students are not able to register for subjects that have reached capacity.
- If you fail to earn credits for an automatically-registered subject that is required for graduation, the university will automatically register you for the subject again in the following semester.
- Students cannot normally register for subjects that they have already passed, even if the instructor, class letter, or language is different. However, students may register for subjects that can be taken more than once. For information about eligible subjects, please check the "Re-registration Possible" column on the Subject List for your college and curriculum.
- Students are not able to register for subjects that do not appear on their course registration screen.
- Students must complete the necessary procedures in order to register for subjects requiring prior application.
- Courses may be cancelled if the number of students registered does not meet the established minimum quota.
- Students to whom the following conditions apply are not allowed to register for Session Subjects.

Curriculum	Conditions
2017 Curriculum	Students in their 8th semester or above \star2 who have already earned at least 100 credits \star3
2011 Curriculum *1	Students in their 8th semester or above *2 who have already earned at least 100 credits *3

- *1 Students who changed from the AY 2006 Curriculum to the AY 2011 Curriculum as a result of a status change or reenrollment will fall under the AY 2006 conditions.
- *2 Accelerated Graduation Program students will fall under the same conditions as those in their intended semester of graduation.
- *3 Credits earned through exchange programs or distance learning programs are transferred as APU credits. As a result, if a student reaches the maximum number of credits in the middle of the semester, the student will no longer be considered eligible to register for session subjects. If it is possible that this will happen to you, we strongly recommend you register for classes other than session subjects.

[Notes]

If an ineligible student registers for a session subject, the University will remove that subject from the student's schedule.

2. Course Registration Schedule & Procedures

4. APU Glossary

This page explains some common terminology used at university as well as some terms that are unique to APU.

Terminology About Classes / Course Registration

Course Registration

The process of registering for the courses you want to take, indicating your intention to attend those courses. If you do not register for courses, you cannot attend classes and earn credits.

Semester

The academic year (April to March) is split into two halves, with each half called a "semester". The first half of the academic year (April to September) is the Spring Semester, and the second half (October to March) is the Fall Semester.

Quarter

Each semester is further divided into two periods called "quarters". The first two months of each semester are called the 1st Quarter, and the last two months are called the 2nd Quarter.

Quarter Break

An approximately week-long break from classes between the 1st and 2nd Quarters.

Course Timetable

A list of courses available each semester. The timetable includes information about the class day, class period, classroom, instructor, semester available, etc.

Syllabus

Instructors use the syllabus to inform students of their plan for the course. The syllabus contains basic and important information about the course, including the semester the course is offered, course content, grading method, requests for students, etc.

GPA

GPA is a value representing a student's overall grade evaluation, calculated based on the individual grades from each of their courses according to the calculation method established by APU. GPA is used when registering for courses and when applying for student exchange, scholarships, etc.

Semester Available From / Semester*

The semester from which you are able to register for a given subject. You can register for a subject if you are in the semester indicated or higher.

*This is written as "Semester" on some documents, including the Subject List and Course Timetable.

Prerequisite Subject

A subject you have to earn credits for before you can register for another subject. If you have not completed the set prerequisite subject(s), you will not be able to register for the subject even if you are in an eligible semester.

Campusmate

This system is used to register for courses, register and change your Area of Study, and check grades.

(2023 curriculum APM students only: Students can register and change their Area of Study using a separate application form)

Campus Terminal

The university sends notices and information to students using this noticeboard system.

5. FAQ

The following section is a list of frequently asked questions. Please check here for answers before asking the Office.

For answers which differ depending on the curriculum and college, the applicable curriculum and college are written above the answer. If no curriculum year or college is written above the answer, the information applies to all students.

Basic Information

A credit shows that you have learned and mastered the content of a course. Credits are based on the Japanese government's University Establishment Standards, determined based on the hours of study required to master each course (including preparation and review) expressed in numerical form.

All students must earn at least 124 credits to graduate. The specific types of credits required are established by curriculum based on year of enrollment, college, and language basis. Please confirm the details at guidance sessions or through the website.

What is the difference between English A and B?

Please refer to the following table.

	English A	English B
StandardTrack	Communication class	Grammar class
AdvancedTrack	Discussion andDebate class	Reading and Essay class

What is the difference between an English language course and a course taught in English?

English language courses are courses in which students study the English language, ranging from levels "Elementary English A and B" to "Advanced English 2A and 2B." The level of a student's English language course is determined based on the results of their placement test taken upon enrollment.

Courses taught in English are courses in which students study a topic in English, in other words, Common Education courses or Major Education courses taught in English. Japanese-basis domestic students must earn at least 20 credits from these courses taught in English to graduate.

Languages spoken in the Asia Pacific region are referred to as "AP Languages".

There are 6 AP languages that students can study: Chinese, Korean, Spanish, Malay / Indonesian, Thai, and Vietnamese. As Level I in these courses is often popular, please try to register as soon as possible once the course registration period begins if you are interested in taking one of these courses.

I will take the lowest level required language class (Elementary English or Japanese Foundation). Can I still register for an AP Language class?

No. To register for AP Languages, the following conditions must be met.

Language Basis	Conditions for Registration
Japanese-basis	Completion or exemption of credits for "Elementary English A" and "Elementary English B"
English-basis	Completion or exemption of credits for "Japanese Foundation II", "Japanese Foundation II" and "Japanese Foundation III"

Additionally, as a registration requirement for AP Languages, the AP Language you wish to take cannot be your native language.

Asia Pacific Language Education

Can I register for an AP Language class and a required language class (English or Japanese) at the same time?

Yes, if the conditions for registering for an AP Language are met.

However, most language courses are worth 4 credits, so they have more class meeting times than other courses. Therefore, in order to take a required language course and an AP language course at the same time, self-management and time management are very important.

Can I apply for language exemption from my first semester?

- Exemptions from taking English Language courses
- Exemptions from taking Japanese Language courses
- Exemptions from taking Asia Pacific Language courses

I'm an English-basis student. Can I take an Advanced Track English Course?

Yes.

● To register for "Advanced English 1A /1B":

You can only register if you have a TOEFL ITP®Test score of 500 - 524 points. You cannot apply in the cases below: Do not have a qualifying TOEFL ITP®Test score

Your TOEFL ITP®Test score has expired

If you wish to register for the course, please submit your TOEFL ITP®Test score sheet in the semester before you want to take the course. If you pass the screening, you can register for the course yourself in the following semester, during Course Registration Period B, if seats are still available.

- XOnly students in their 2nd semester or above can apply.
- To register for "Advanced English 2A /2B" or other Advanced Track courses for specific purposes: If seats are available during Course Registration Period B, you can register for the course(s) yourself.

Curriculum and Graduation Requirements

Do I have to register an Area of Study to graduate?

As explained below, this depends on your college and curriculum.

[2023 Curriculum Students]

(APS)

You must register for an Area of Study to graduate. You can register for or change your Area of Study from your 2nd through your final semester, during course registration periods (Period A, Period B, Correction Period 1, Correction Period 2). Registration in a Area of Study is not a requirement for graduation. However, if you register and fulfill the requirements, the name of your Area of Study will appear on your degree certificate. Students may register or change their Area of Study during the course registration periods (A-period, B-period, Modification 1, and Modification 2) from the first semester to the last semester of study. For more information, please select the 2023 Curriculum in the APM under "Graduation Requirements, Required Courses, and Areas of Study" and check "Areas of Study".

I'm a Japanese-basis international student. Do I have to earn 20 credits from courses taught in English to graduate?

No. Only Japanese-basis domestic students are required to earn 20 credits from courses taught in English to graduate. However, students who graduated from a Japanese high school but do not have Japanese nationality may be categorized as domestic students. Please be sure to check Campusmate to confirm your category.

Can 2017 Curriculum students register for 2023 Curriculum courses?

No.

Curriculums are created by considering how to systematically structure student learning over four years. A student's curriculum stays the same from admission to graduation, and in principle should not change during their course of study. For this reason, even for students in the same college, the 2017 and 2023 curriculums have different course systems, and they offer different courses (however, some courses have not been changed). As such, courses that have been newly added for the 2023 curriculum do not exist in the 2017 curriculum, and cannot be registered.

Can I graduate even if I don't write a graduation thesis?

As explained below, this depends on your college and curriculum.

[2023 Curriculum Students]

(APS)

No. APS students are required to earn credit for "Graduation Research II" in which you write a graduation thesis (or graduation report) as a requirement for graduation. For details, please check the information on the Seminar Courses page for your curriculum.

(APM)

Yes. You are not required to write a graduation thesis in order to graduate.

(ST)

It depends on the course you select for your final results.

One graduation requirement is to "Complete at least 2 credits of Final Results Subjects." If you choose "Graduation Project" to fulfill this requirement, you will be required to write a graduation thesis (or activity report).

[2017 / 2011 Curriculum Students]

(APS or APM) Yes. You are not required to write a graduation thesis in order to graduate.

FOR APS STUDENTS

I plan to register for the CSM Area of Study. However, I'm also interested in IR, so can I register for both IR introductory-level courses "Introduction to International Relations" and "Introduction to Comparative Politics"? [2023 Curriculum students ONLY]

Yes. APS students are required to take at least one introductory-level course (common liberal arts course) from each Area of Study. If students earn credits for both "Introduction to International Relations" and "Introduction to Comparative Politics," the extra two credits will be counted as Common Liberal Arts subject credits.

Q	Do I need to register for the core courses, Introduction to APS and Introduction to Area Studies? [2017 Curriculum Students ONLY]

- These courses are not required. Introduction to APS contains a lot of information that APS students should know, so it is automatically registered by the University in the first semester. Introduction to Area Studies teaches the basic information required to begin studying the Asia Pacific. This course is not automatically registered, but the University strongly recommends taking it.
- I have definitely completed 30 credits of subjects in my registered Area of Study Hospitality and Tourism (HT), but when I check the "HT Major Education subjects" field on Campusmate, the number of completed credits shown is only 28. [2017 Curriculum Students ONLY]

FOR APM STUDENTS

- - Yes. Mathematics and Statistics are required courses that can be registered from first year, so we recommend taking those courses early.
- For APM required subjects, I heard that even if the University is scheduled to register them for me in my second semester, I can register them myself in my 1st semester. How can I do this? [2017 / 2023 Curriculum Students only]

Grade Point Average (GPA)

A GPA is a value representing a student's overall grade evaluation, calculated from the individual grades of their classes according to a specific set of rules established by the University.

Cumulative GPA and Semester GPA

"Cumulative GPA" is calculated from the time of a student's enrollment through to a student's last semester. This is the number that is printed on official transcripts. Cumulative GPA is used when applying for exchange programs, the Accelerated Graduation Program, priority registration, etc.

"Semester GPA" is calculated using only the grades acquired in the present semester. This is the number that is not included on official transcripts. Semester GPA is used when applying for scholarships, priority registration, etc.

Calculating GPA

Cumulative GPA:

 $(No. of \ A+credits \times 4) + (No. of \ A \ credits \times 3) + (No. of \ B \ credits \times 2) + (No. of \ C \ credits \times 1) + (No. of \ F \ credits \times 0)$

Total registered credits (excluding P/T)

Semester GPA:

 $(No. of \ A+credits \times 4) + (No. of \ A \ credits \times 3) + (No. of \ B \ credits \times 2) + (No. of \ C \ credits \times 1) + (No. of \ F \ credits \times 0)$

Registered credits for given semester (excluding P/T)

For Readmitted or Reinstated Students whose curriculum change from AY2006 Curriculum to the AY 2011 Curriculum.

Cumulative GPA:

(No.of A+credits×4) +(No.of A credits×3)+(No.of B credits×2)+(No.of C credits×1)+

1. Accelerated Graduation Program

The accelerated graduation program has been devised to encourage the academic efforts of outstanding students who wish to graduate in three years or three and one half years. Those who wish to enroll in the "accelerated graduation program" must meet a number of specific criteria.

Once enrolled, as long as students meet the assessment criteria at the end of the 4th semester, they will continue on the program through the time of their graduation.

*This program is not for APS students in the 2023 curriculum.

Tuition

Students who register for the Accelerated Graduation Program will be charged tuition under a different model from regular students, shown below. As such, after registering for the Accelerated Graduation Program the tuition costs per semester will be higher than those of regular students, so please be sure to check each semester's tuition costs carefully.

In addition, it is not possible to switch back to the regular program after registering for the Accelerated Graduation Program unless you fail the rescreening process in your 4th semester.

APU Tuition is split into two parts: Tuition A (the same for all students) and Tuition B (differs by year). Tuition A is charged to all current students each semester, so if you graduate in three years you will not have to pay Tuition A in your 4th year.

If you graduate in three and a half years, you will have already completed your Tuition B payments so you will only be required to pay Tuition A in your 7th semester and will not be charged for Tuition B.

Please check the Tuition Fees page of the APU homepage for details.

3. Graduate School Subjects Early Enrollment Program

About the Program

The Graduate School Subjects Early Enrollment program provides undergraduate students in their 7th or 8th semester with the opportunity to take subjects of their choice in one of the graduate schools while retaining their undergraduate status.

If the student later enrolls in an APU graduate school, credits earned while studying in this program can be transferred upon application as long as they are deemed academically beneficial by the graduate school in question.

Taking graduate school subjects early will reduce students' workload after enrollment in graduate school and will allow them to focus on their research. Students who want to use their time wisely and prepare for proceeding to the next stage of their studies before advancing to graduate school are encouraged to take full advantage of this program.
