Watch Out!

Are you accidentally committing plagiarism in your report?

The following are examples of plagiarism:

- Viewing your friend/senior's report, rewriting the content, and using it

- Copying information from a website or book without proper citation

- Giving your friend a copy of a report you wrote in the past

Plagiarism has severe consequences.

Plagiarism is academic misconduct that violates the learning agreement. Reflect carefully before writing or submitting your report to make sure you do not plagiarize.

※Please check our Writing Manual for information on how to cite properly.

Be sure to read the Final Report Submission Manual.
