

3. Course Registration

3.1 Registering for Courses

3.1.1 From Registration to Credit Completion

Course registration is the process of each student registering for classes they would like to take, as well as a declaration of intent. Course registration is the most important part of course planning, and absolutely necessary in order to attend classes, receive credits, and graduate.

Course registration occurs each semester. Please check the Undergraduate Academic Handbook and syllabus (see p.137), refer to the course timetable and course registration section on the Academic Office website to create a study plan, then register for courses via Campusmate during the appropriate course registration period. If you are not fully prepared when the time to register comes, it can lead to either incomplete or incorrect registration of classes, costing you valuable time and effort. Please use extra caution when registering for classes to ensure you are able to progress in your study plan.

Credit Registration Limits

There is a fixed maximum number of credits for which students may register each semester. Please note that this number differs depending on the student's curriculum. There are no minimum credit requirements per semester. However, there are minimum requirements when applying for certain scholarships and various programs. As the number of credits registered may impact visa status for international students, it is imperative that students register carefully. For more information, please consult with the Student Office.

Maximum Number of Credits

3.1.2 Course Registration Overview

In order to take classes, students register for courses during "Course Registration Periods" held before each semester begins. After classes begin, there are additional "Correction Periods" in which current classes may be dropped, and future classes may be added or dropped. Please review the course syllabus and consider carefully before registering for courses.

<Registration Steps>

1. Check the registration schedule.
2. View syllabus and find subjects.
3. Confirm credit fields and any prerequisite subjects using the subject list for your curriculum and college.
4. Check the course timetable.
5. Register for courses online during the designated registration period via Campusmate.
6. After completing registration, print or save the "Registration Confirmation Screen."
7. Attend classes.
8. If desired, make any course registration changes during the appropriate correction period.

3.1.3 Important Notes for Course Registration

All Students

- Students cannot register over the credit limit per semester.
- Students cannot register for subjects held during the same period on the same day, unless the subjects are held during different quarters.
- Students are not able to register for subjects that have reached capacity.
- Students cannot normally register for subjects that they have already passed, even if the instructor, class letter, or language is different. However, students may register for subjects that can be taken more than once or when they are approved for re-registration (see p.136).
- Students are not able to register for subjects that do not appear on their course registration screen.
- Students must complete the necessary procedures in order to register for subjects requiring prior application.
- Courses may be cancelled in cases where the number of students registered for the subject does not satisfy the established minimum quota.
- The following categories of students are not allowed to register for Session Subjects.

Curriculum	Conditions
AY 2017 Curriculum	Students in their 8th semester or above *2 who have already earned at least 100 credits *3
AY 2011 Curriculum *1	Students in their 8th semester or above *2 who have already earned at least 100 credits *3

*1 Students who changed from the AY 2006 Curriculum to the AY 2011 Curriculum as a result of a status change or reenrollment will fall under the AY 2006 conditions.

*2 Accelerated Graduation Program students will fall under the same conditions as those in their intended semester of graduation.

*3 Credits earned through exchange programs or distance learning programs are transferred as APU credits. As a result, even if a student reaches the required number of credits in the middle of the semester, the student will no longer be considered eligible to register for session subjects. If it is possible that this will happen to you, we strongly recommend you register for classes other than session subjects. If an ineligible student registers for a session subject, the university will remove that subject from the student's schedule.

AY 2017 Curriculum Students

- Japanese-basis students must complete "Intermediate English A & B" before they may register for Common Liberal Arts or Major Education Subjects held in English. Japanese-basis domestic students must also complete "Pre-Intermediate English A & B" in order to take "APS or APM Bridge Program" subjects. Students may take "APS or APM Bridge Program" subjects after completing "Pre-Intermediate English" and before completing "Upper-Intermediate A & B." Important Notes for the Course Registration System

Students are able to register online via the "Campusmate" system, accessible through Campus Terminal. For instructions and precautions, please see the Academic Office website.

Accessing Campusmate

The screenshot shows the APU Campus Terminal website. The top navigation bar includes 'HOME', 'School Affairs Posting', and 'Syllabus'. The main content area is titled 'Information' and lists various news items. On the right side, there is a 'Menu' section with links to 'Messages', 'Office365', 'Mailing List', 'Change Password', and 'Bookmark'. Below the menu, there is a 'Link' section with links to 'Implementing Online Classes via Zoom', 'APU Official Site', and 'Campusmate Web (APU)'. The 'Campusmate Web (APU)' link is highlighted with a red box.

Notes:

- Students bear full responsibility for any errors made during course registration. As no special consideration will be given for such errors, please use extra caution during registration to ensure no mistakes are made.
- If you access Campusmate via any browser other than Internet Explorer (IE) it is possible an error may occur. The University takes no responsibility for registration problems caused by such errors.
- Do not log into multiple screens with the same account at the same time. This can lead to system errors, preventing registration. The University will bear no responsibility for any problems a student may experience in this case.
- If you log out or close the registration screen prior to completing course registration, you will lose all changes. You must first complete your course registration, log out, and then log in again to confirm your course registration is correct. Mistakes in registration are your own responsibility.
- Please do not share your password with anyone else. The University recommends regularly changing your password.
- Using another person's APU Net ID and password to access Campus Terminal, Campusmate, or other services is an extremely serious criminal act. Never use another person's account ID and password.
- There are many reported cases resulting in serious problems because of students swapping subjects during the course registration period. You must not give away or trade subjects with other students. The University does not take responsibility for any problems caused by such behavior. Furthermore, students who trade subjects for money or other compensation will be subject to disciplinary action.
- You may conduct course registration off campus. However, as accessing the system from outside the campus network may be slow or unreliable, the University recommends the use of on-campus terminals for course registration. You are responsible for any adverse result that comes from using these systems.
- When you register or cancel subjects online, please be sure to click the Apply button to register your changes. Upon completion, please make sure to save or print the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet which includes your "Registration No." Without this number on the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet, we cannot respond to inquiries about system errors. Be sure to record the date the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet was printed / saved.
- Every morning between the hours of 3:00 and 5:00(Japan Standard Time) Campusmate will be offline for maintenance.

3.1.4 Course Re-registration System

For most subjects, once a course has been completed and credits are received, it cannot be registered for again. The re-registration system was developed for students who wish to deepen their understanding of a completed course by allowing the registration of the same subject in cases where the instructor, course content, or language of instruction has changed. For details, please refer to the "Courses Requiring Prior Application" page on the Academic Office website.

3.1.5 Registration Advising

Advising for course registration is always available at the Academic Office. When requesting assistance with course registration, please refer to the following guidelines. This will ensure the University is able to provide timely and accurate support.

Office Contact

Please visit the Academic Office during office hours. As a rule, registration assistance is not provided via email or phone, as we cannot confirm a student's identity. Due to possible delays in a reply to email inquiries, in the case of an emergency, please come directly to the Academic Office for assistance.

Academic Office Hours
Monday, Wednesday through Friday	10:00-16:30
Tuesday	11:30-16:30

Documents to Bring

- Student ID Card
- Course Registration page from Campusmate (latest version) – paper or data accepted

Preparation

- Please consider the topics you wish to talk about before coming to the Academic Office.
- Please review the Undergraduate Academic Handbook for relevant information and rules. Details such as the credit field of subjects may be viewed in the Handbook.
- Please confirm your own credit completion or registration status using Campusmate. Instructions on how to do this are available on the Academic Office website.

Future Plans and Goals

After fully understanding the content discussed, students are responsible for making their own decisions in carrying out registration.

3.2 Syllabus and APU Library

3.2.1 Viewing the Syllabus Online

The syllabus is an important tool for providing students with information on subjects, including the following items:

- Subject / Class Name; Semester offered (Fall / Spring); Subject Code
- Instructor
- Class outline (course objectives, standards for course completion, teaching methods, method of grade evaluation)
- Requirements for students
- Required readings and further readings

3.2.2 Introduction to the APU Library

The APU Library is not only a place to read and check out books and materials, it also provides spaces for individual and group study, as well as presentations. Technology-assisted study is also possible with IT facilities such as the Multimedia Room and wireless Internet.

As the Library is used by a large number of people every day, its rules of use are strictly enforced. Please be considerate of other library users and follow the facility rules to ensure that everyone is able to benefit in their studies.

Library Facilities

- The first floor includes the "Group Study Rooms" and "Presentation Room," which are useful to students working in study groups or on group projects.
- Study booths are located on the second floor for those who want a quiet place to concentrate and study.
- Wireless LAN access areas are located throughout the Library, and computers are available in the Multimedia Room.
- Also found within the Library are the "Advising Booth," used for student advising, the "Writing Center," which provides support for reading- and writing-related studying, and the "Analytics and Math Center" (AMC) aimed at helping students improve their math and statistics skills.

3.2.3 Finding Textbooks and Reading Materials at the Library

Reading materials used for classes and individual study may be viewed or borrowed at the APU Library. The reading materials listed within the syllabus are linked to the RUNNERS Library System, allowing online checks of book availability, placing of reservations, and ordering of materials from the Ritsumeikan University Library. Additionally, some reference materials may be viewed as E-books.

Searching for and Acquiring Materials
