2. Course Registration

2.1 Course Registration

- Course Registration involves not only carrying out the procedures for registering classes, but also making the decision regarding which classes you wish to take. It is the most important part of your academic planning, and it is necessary in taking classes, receiving credit and graduating. To help facilitate the planning of all students, always take utmost care when registering. Please do not register for courses you do not plan to attend, as this may prevent other students from registering.
- The syllabus can be viewed on the Campus Terminal. Please review the syllabus before registering.
- When you register or cancel subjects online, please be sure to click the Apply button to register your changes. Upon completion, please make sure to save or print the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet which includes your "Registration No." Without this number on the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet, we cannot respond to inquiries about system errors. Be sure to record the date the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet was printed/saved.
- Students expecting to graduation in March, 2022 who are uncertain about meeting the required credit criteria should plan to register and complete extra credits.

2.2 Grade Level

Each course corresponds to a particular level of study, indicated by a grade level code (refer to the pp.90-97 Undergraduate Academic Handbook). The levels are as follows. Please note that in most cases, with the exception of seminars and some other designated subjects, subjects can be resgisterd by students in the corresponding year or those in a higher year.

Grade Level	100 level	200 level	300 level	400 level

- Students bear full responsibility for any errors made during course registration.
As no special consideration will be given for such errors, please use extra caution during registration to ensure no mistakes are made.
- If you access Campusmate via any browser other than Internet Explorer (IE) it is possible an error may occur.
The University takes no responsibility for registration problems caused by such errors
- You may register for courses from an off-campus location, however, students are recommended to use on-campus computers as it may take an excessive amount of time to access Campus mate from an off-campus location.
- Do not log into multiple screens with the same account at the same time. This can lead to system errors, preventing registration.
The University will bear no responsibility for any problems a student may experience in this case.
- If you log out or close the registration screen prior to completing course registration, you will lose all changes.
You must first complete your course registration, log out, and then log in again to confirm your course registration is correct.
Mistakes in registration are your own responsibility.
- Please do not share your password with anyone else. The University recommends regularly changing your password.
- Using another person's APU Net ID and password to access Campus Terminal, Campusmate, or other services is an extremely serious criminal act.
Never use another person's account ID and password.
- There are many reported cases resulting in serious problems because of students swapping subjects during the course registration period.
You must not give away or trade subjects with other students. The University does not take responsibility for any problems caused by such behavior.
Furthermore, students who trade subjects for money or other compensation will be subject to disciplinary action.
- You are responsible for any adverse result that comes from using these systems.
- When you register or cancel subjects online, please be sure to click the Apply button to register your changes.
Upon completion, please make sure to save or print the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet which includes your "Registration No."
Without this number on the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet, we cannot respond to inquiries about system errors.
Be sure to record the date the Course Registration Confirmation Sheet was printed/saved.
- Every morning between the hours of 3:00 and 5:00(Japan Standard Time) Campusmate will be offline for maintenance.
- This schedule is subject to change due to any further outbreaks of Covid-19.
Please make sure to regularly check the University Official Website and Campus Terminal for the latest updates.

3.3 Required Japanese language subjects

- For English-basis students, the starting level of required Japanese language subjects will be based on the results of the placement test at the time of enrollment. Until all required Japanese language subjects are completed, the University will continue to automatically register and assign students to classes.

The Course Timetable for automatically registered subjects such as Japanese language classes (mandatory language subjects) etc. will be announced via Campus Terminal on Fri. September 17, 2021 (tentative).

4. Area of Study (APM)

Registering / Changing Area of Study

The College of International Management has established four Areas of Study in order to support the development of future business people with high professional ethics and the ability to discover and resolve management issues. Students will acquire a knowledge of management and a deep understanding of diverse societies, cultures and traditions and also interact with individuals from a variety of backgrounds in the world of international business.

Once students have completed 12 or more credits from among the designated subjects for the Area of Study (seminar subjects can be included up to 4 credits in the 12 credits) and registered for their Area of Study via Campusmate during the designated registration period, the name of that Area of Study will be noted on their diploma. Students can only choose one of the four Areas of Study. Please note that you can only register for one Area of Study. Can be registered through Campusmate during each course registration / correction period. Students can register for, or make changes to, their Area of Study up until to Correction Period 2 of their expected semester of graduation.

5. Use Caution when Registering for the Following Courses

Please note that some subjects will not be available for you depending on your curriculum, semester of enrollment, etc. Please make sure that you refer to the Undergraduate Academic Handbook (pp.130-133) and course syllabus for details.

5.1 Japanese Subjects

- The University will continue to automatically assign classes until students have acquired the credits for the mandatory required Japanese language subjects. The timetable and lecturer may differ from class to class, even if offered at the same level. All subjects will be assigned by the University and students will not be able to change or drop classes.
- Japanese Language for Specific Purposes is for students who have completed their language graduation requirements but nevertheless wish to further improve their language skills. Please refer to the syllabus and Undergraduate Academic Handbook (p.79) for more details on course objectives and prerequisite subjects.

5.2 Asia Pacific Languages (AP Languages)

Registration can be carried out during the regular registration period. Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- The language subject that they are registering for is not their native language. Students who register for a course in their native language will later have their registration deleted.
- Japanese-basis students must have completed or be exempted from 'Elementary English A and B' and English-basis students must have completed or be exempted from 'Japanese Foundation Course I, II, and III'.

5.3 English Subjects

- English-basis students who wish to register for English courses may take English courses at the "Advanced Track" level.
- English-basis students may register for "Advanced English 2A·2B" or Language for Specific Purposes in Advanced Track by themselves during Course Registration Period B only if there are seats available
- Only students with a TOEFL ITP® Test score between 500 to 524 may apply for "Advanced English 1A·1B". Students who wish to register must submit a TOEFL ITP® Test score sheet in the semester preceeding the one in which they wish to take the course. Accepted students may register for these courses by themselves during Course Registration Period B only if there are seats available. For further details, please visit the Academic Office website.
