Internship

●●●● Educational Purposes of Internships at APU ●●●●

Internships are professional experiences within companies/organizations that allow students to build their career before they graduate. Within APU, we are also working with companies/organizations on implementing internships for students to allow them to gain critical experiences, learning, and understanding to further develop their studies as students. The following three points summarize the main purposes of the internship program in APU

- ① To apply what you have learned in APU's multicultural environment in on-campus and off-campus programs to the real world and reflect on your overall learning;
- ② In being aware of your role in society, to begin to recognize and reason on matters and issues that surround you within the real world;
- ③ Through the real-world experiences, to further deepen your knowledge to achieve learning accomplishments in various forms.

Important points when writing your applications

1. Your first impression is made through the application documents you submit. Follow the basics: write in an easy-to-read manner, be respectful and ask yourself if your application sounds intriguing. Proofread and check for spelling and grammar errors. Also, have other people proofread your application as well. Then submit ALL completed application documents. You may refer to the Job Hunting Handbook – Web edition (available on the Career Office website) for instructions on writing Resumes and Entry Sheets.
2. Students may only apply up to TWO internships at one time.
* If one of your applications does not proceed to the next step, you may submit another application for another internship. At one time, only 2 of your applications may be under evaluation at the Career Office. So you may keep applying for internships only after getting results back (not possible if you are accepted to both internships).
* It is the applicant's responsibility to check the internship periods of the different internships if you intend to apply to multiple internships. Please manage your schedules efficiently and check to make sure that the internships don't overlap with each other or with any other schedules.
3. Please make sure to check the format of the internship before applying.
Some companies will only host their internships online, while others may switch their format from in-person to online due to further outbreaks of Covid-19.
There is also the possibility that some internships will be outright cancelled if the government announces another state of emergency etc. so please check and confirm the information for each host institution before applying.
4. In the event that you apply for both the Contract-type Internships and the Business Internship, be sure that there will be no overlap in the schedule of all your classes, guidance sessions and the internships. In the event that there is an overlap in the schedule of the Business Internship and the Contract-type Internships, you must give priority to the Business Internship.

- B) In the event the participant becomes subject to disciplinary action after the announcement of screening results
- C) In the event the designated overseas travel and accident insurance is not taken out, and/or in the event that university instructions concerning the submission of documents, attendance at required guidance sessions, etc. are not followed
- D) In the event of misconduct
- E) In the event of other violations of the participant's duty as a student

2. Withdrawal After the Announcement of Screening Results

The university undertakes screening on the assumption that, at the time of application, everyone who applies to a program wishes to participate. Therefore, as a general rule, withdrawal after the announcement of screening results is not permitted.

When applying, students should carefully review the program contents in advance and make their preparations assuming they will not withdraw.

3. Registration Plan

Students should thoroughly review their registration plan and number of credits to be earned through the program and confirm that this plan will not cause any problems with their registration plan for graduation. No special consideration will be given in the event that problems are identified after the screening results have been announced and also that an item listed in "1. Cancellation of Participation" has arisen. Students should assume personal responsibility when applying to any program.

Note: Students wishing to participate at the same internship organization multiple times will only be able to register a credit bearing course with that organization once.

The Screening Process and Pre-Internship Procedure

The initial screening for most Contract-type Internships is conducted internally. Interviews with the host institutions may proceed afterwards in the form of phone or online interviews. In addition, successful applicants are required to undergo procedures in preparation for their internship.

Application

Internal Screening

Document Screening Your application documents will be evaluated based on the internship requirements. Any incomplete applications will not proceed to the next level.

Initial Online Interviews Interview questions will be based on your application. Make sure you are well aware of the details mentioned and are able to talk about them confidently. Also, the internship should be related to your career plan and you must have a clear objective for applying. Your understanding about the program, host institution, communication and language skills will be evaluated.

Applicants will be recommended to the host institutions by the Career Office based on the overall evaluation results

Points will be allocated for cumulative GPA, contents of the application and interview performance. Those recommended will then be introduced to the host institutions for final online interviews.

Final Screening by the Host Institution

The final selection will be determined by the host institutions and not APU. The Career Office will notify you of the results once the decision is made.

All results will be notified to applicants by the Career Office.

Please be advised that some screening results from companies may be delivered after the Pre-Internship classes. Those who wish to apply for credits, please be advised that attending all mandatory classes is important, regardless of the timing of the screening results.

How initial online interviews are scheduled:

The dates for interviews for each host institution are predetermined. However, you are able to decide the time of the interviews. On the application form, list your preferred times for the interview and the Career Office will then notify you of the finalized schedule and meeting ID at a later date.

*There may be cases in which the interview may not be scheduled on your preferred times or you may be asked to reschedule.

*Please understand that we will not accept interview rescheduling once the schedule has been confirmed.

On the day of the online interview:

*Do NOT be late!

*Formal business wear is not required.

*No-show without prior notification will automatically result in being dropped from further selection screenings.

If you are unable to attend due to an emergency or unforeseen circumstances, contact the Career Office as soon as possible.

Please notify us in-person or through phone at 0977-78-1128 (or via email for students residing outside Japan).

GAIA (GlobAl Internship with Alumni) Overview

GAIA is an internship program in which you will develop your career working alongside APU graduates within and outside of Japan. This initiative was initially established and implemented from 2016 with APU being selected as a "Top Global University Project" (SGU) in 2014.

Different from regular internships, this is a unique program that allows current students to see firsthand how APU alumni are applying their APU experiences in their careers and contributing to the development of society. This is so that current students may then reevaluate their own experiences in life and define their career path going forward. Furthermore, for APU graduates, GAIA provides an opportunity for them to be involved in the education at APU in supporting their juniors.

1 Purpose of GAIA

- (1) In getting in contact with alumni who are working professionals, students may envision their own future career more clearly.
- (2) With alumni as their role models, students gain practical knowledge useful for their careers.
- (3) In learning how the alumni applied their studies and utilized their networks after graduation, students may in return apply this knowledge to their current school life.

2 Target participants, Conditions of Registration, Course Registration

Registration conditions for GAIA are the same as Contract-type Internships, please refer to p. 4-7 for more information. In general, students are responsible for their own travel, accommodation and related expenses. However, there have been cases where host institutions have provided financial assistance for the students.

3 Before and After the internship assignments during the internship

We will be implementing the following GAIA Pre and Post-Internship Sessions as well as assign several tasks during the internship for GAIA participants.

Before the internship

Participate in the GAIA Pre-Internship Session and learn about the alumni, the alumni association (*association for university students after they graduate). Learn the initiatives of APU and form your mindset and set your own goals for GAIA.

During the internship

- ① Work alongside the APU alumni and observe how they work (their actions and mindsets, thinking process, etc).
- ② Interview the APU alumni and based on their answers, reflect on how you will shape your own future and what experiences that you should do while you are in APU to make that future a reality.
- ③ Set aside time to discuss with alumni and receive feedback on your progress.

After the internship

- ① Participate in the GAIA Post-Internship Session and present your findings on what you learned and how it connects to your future career to university faculty and staff. Then receive advice in regards to the next step in building your career after your internship.

② Submit the following documents (together with documents listed on P.12) to the Career Office

Course Registration		Documents	Where to submit / for enquiry	Deadline	Notes

Items Common to All Programs

1. Visa

It is the student's responsibility to verify the visa(s) that will be required from departure through return home and then to apply. The visa(s) required will differ depending on the student's nationality, the country/region of dispatch, and the length of stay. Students should check the website for each embassy to confirm the visa required (including transit visas) and the documents required. Further, because visa application requirements can change without notice, please be sure you have the most recent information in hand. For those getting a "Visa On Arrival" (also: "On-Arrival Visa"), according to the regulations of the country issuing the visa, generally speaking such visas are not recognized except in cases when a visa cannot be obtained prior to traveling.

In the unlikely event that you are unable to obtain your visa by the date set, your dispatch/study abroad program will be canceled. Also, the dispatch/start date of your study abroad program will not be changed.

In that event, the participant will bear the cost of any cancellation fees. Cancellation fees to be borne and grades will be handled in accordance with the " Disclaimers and Notices ".

[International Students Only]

International students should review the renewal date for their Japanese residence permit and permission for reentry in addition to the visa requirements for the country where their program will be run. If there is anything you don't understand regarding the renewal date for your residence permit or permission for reentry, please check with the Student Office.

Note: Depending on the program, there are cases when your visa application will be handled by an agency. Please confirm the details with the program coordinator.

2. Insurance

Including cases where students have already individually taken out an insurance policy, program participants must take out domestic and overseas travel insurance as designated by APU and the host institution, join the JCSOS Crisis Management System (J-TAS), and so on. Details on taking out these insurance policies will be provided in the pre-program classes and at the guidance session for participants.

3. Vaccinations

The APU Health Clinic will provide information on the types of vaccinations it recommends at the pre-program classes and the guidance session for participants. Because the vaccinations recommended by the Health Clinic are not mandatory, each student should decide for themselves about whether to get the vaccination(s) or not. Students wishing to get the vaccination(s) should contact the health clinic and make an appointment for themselves.

Please note that some vaccinations may be mandatory depending on the dispatch destination, so please follow the instructions given during the guidance session.

4. Program Cancellation or Change of Program Contents, Cancellation of Participation

① The Dean of Academic Affairs will make the decision to cancel student dispatch if the following conditions are met:

1) In the event the Ministry of Foreign Affairs' "Travel Advise and Warning on Infectious Diseases" is level 2 or above for the country or region of dispatch.

1-1) In principle dispatch for Student Exchange Programs, Double Degree Programs, Independently Arranged Study Abroad, and Short-term Summer/Winter Programs will be cancelled if the Ministry of Foreign Affairs issues a level 2 for "Travel Advise and Warning on Infectious Diseases"; however, if participants of these programs wish to do so, they may be permitted by the Vice-President of Academic Affairs to travel to their host destination at the participant's and their parent's discretion. However, if the travel advise and warning reaches level 3 or above, all programs will be cancelled without exception.

2) In the event a program cannot be operated safely in view of social conditions.

2-1) When making the decision to cancel a program, we take into consideration the projection that any of the following will occur in the program destination: natural disasters; accidents; strikes; infectious disease; political unrest in the program country or region; disruptions to the normal operation of public transportation or medical services; war; terrorism; injury to, or sudden hospitalization of faculty coordinators; inadequate support for outgoing students from the host institution in the event of a crisis; or other unforeseen circumstances.

3) In the event a host institution decides to cancel acceptance of students from

APU which involves overseas travel

- ② In the event any of the following apply, a participant's participation in a program may be cancelled even after the announcement of acceptance. Further, with the exception of Overseas Student Exchange Program, Double Degree Program, and Short-Term Summer/Winter Program, in the event a participant's participation in a program is cancelled, as a rule a grade of "F" will be assigned.
- A) In the event a participant's course participation is judged inappropriate, taking into consideration the participant's behavior and attendance
 - B) In the event the participant becomes subject to disciplinary action after the announcement of screening results
 - C) In the event the designated overseas travel and accident insurance is not taken out, and/or in the event that university instructions concerning the submission of documents, attendance at required guidance sessions, etc. are not followed
 - D) In the event that the university determines study abroad is not suitable due to injury, illness, etc.
 - E) In the event of misconduct
 - F) In the event of other violations of the participant's duty as a student
- ③ The student will be required to pay for costs already incurred at the point in time when their program participation is canceled.

5. Withdrawal After the Announcement of Screening Results

The university undertakes screening on the assumption that, at the time of application, everyone who applies to a program wishes to participate. Therefore, as a general rule, withdrawal after the announcement of screening results is not permitted.

When applying, students should carefully review the program contents in advance and make their preparations assuming they will not withdraw. Furthermore, if a student fails to pay the cost set by the university by the deadline, this will be treated as a withdrawal. Please see Item "6. Cancellation Fees" below regarding cancellation fees. In the case of credit-granting programs, as a general rule students who withdraw will be assigned a grade of "F".

6. Cancellation Fees

In cases where a participant is forced to withdraw after announcement of the screening results, the withdrawing student must pay costs incurred up until that point in time. The cancellation fee also includes bank fees (overseas wire fees, etc.).

In the case that the costs required by the program have already been remitted to the university, the cancellation fees will be deducted and the difference will be refunded. The refund procedures require a certain amount of time.

7. Registration Plan

Students should thoroughly review their registration plan and number of credits to be earned through the program and confirm that this plan will not cause any problems with their registration plan for graduation. No special consideration will be given in the event that problems are identified after the screening results have been announced and also that an item listed in "4. Program Cancellation or Change of Program Contents, Cancellation of Participation" has arisen. Students should assume personal responsibility when applying to any program.

Note: It is not possible to participate multiple times in a program having the same lecture content.

If it is not clear whether or not the program you wish to apply for has the same content as a program you have already completed, please inquire with the Academic Office before applying.

8. Handling of Personal Information

Please see the pledge for details.

9. On Participating in a Program

1_Whether or not a program experience is rewarding depends greatly on the attitude and effort of the participants themselves. Participants need to have the flexibility to accept the different cultures found abroad and a positive attitude towards learning. Each participant should firmly set goals for participating in the program. Further, attendance at the guidance session and the pre-/post-classes held before and after dispatch is mandatory. Absences without notice are not permitted. Also, students should be sure to submit all documents and assignments by their deadlines.

2_During program participation, participants should comply with the "Off-Campus Study Programs Requirements for Participation (Pledge)" and the "Risk Management Guidelines for Off-campus Study Programs Participants".

Points to Remember When Submitting Documents

1. In general, all documents must be submitted via email.

Contract-type/ Independently arranged Internships: Career Office (career2@apu.ac.jp)

Business Internships: Academic Office (atfs@apu.ac.jp)

2. In the case a language is specified, please fill in the form according to the specified language (only for students who wish to register courses).

3. Students are also responsible for keeping to document submission deadlines even for documents that have to be filled out by their internship supervisors.

4. Regardless of the reason, late submissions will NOT be accepted (e.g. transportation problems, technical difficulties, illness, etc.).

Q3. I don't know how to write a Japanese resume.

A. For guidance, you can refer to the Job Hunting Handbook (Japanese & English).

URL: <http://www.apu.ac.jp/careers/page/content0012.html>

A resume is a tool for application screening and a reference for interviewers when interviewing. A resume that only you are satisfied with may not be true for the people hiring. We encourage you to get as much feedback as possible such as from your professors, advisors at the Career Office, friends and family.

Q4. I have been accepted into a Contract-type or Business internship, but the schedule conflicts with my other activities, so I want to cancel.

A. You CANNOT withdraw from an internship once you have been accepted. It will trouble the host institutions greatly to have you withdraw after being accepted. Especially for job hunters, please pay extra attention on this matter. Moreover, you are obliged to attend the entire training. You are not allowed to be absent due to part-time jobs or extracurricular activities.

Therefore, make sure to check your own schedule before applying.

Q5. I have a guidance session / class during the same period as one of the Pre and/or Post-(Business) Internship Classes.

A. Those who intend to apply for course registration MUST attend all lecture sessions. If you have any concerns about attendance, please come to the Academic Office before the sessions are held.

If you participate in a Contract-type Internship and do not intend to apply for course registration, attendance is not mandatory.

Q6. What should I wear during the internship?

A. On the first day of your internship, we suggest going in business attire/suit. For reference of standard business attire, refer to the Job Hunting Handbook (Japanese & English). However, rather than what you wear, what is most important is your manners and business etiquette that show who you are. Be respectful as you will not be just a university student, but you will be taking a step closer to becoming a member of society.

Q7. What should I do if I become ill? What if I feel too unwell to attend or continue my internship training?

A. During the internship, you will be engaging in work under an unfamiliar environment. Please do your best to take care of your health. In the event you become too unwell to continue your internship, make sure to contact the Career Office and Academic Office as soon as possible. You should also contact your host institution to explain the situation. In principle, absence without notice is not allowed.

Q8. What should I do if a natural disaster or accident occurs during my internship?

A. If a disaster or accident occurs during your internship, make sure to contact the Career Office and Academic Office as soon as possible. Furthermore, make sure to contact your host institution. If necessary, you should also proceed with your insurance procedures. In case of emergency, APU may contact you to confirm your safety. Under the Emergency Contact Information column, please fill in a contact detail which you guarantee can be reached.

(In the event of participating in an overseas internship)

- Be sure to research your internship properly and select a safe environment in which to work.
- If your internship is abroad, please consult with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs foreign safety website (<http://www.anzen.mofa.go.jp/>) and regularly check information updates from the country's foreign ministry and embassy.

Q9. I would like to know more about insurance for internships.

A. Internship insurance that is available through the Career Office is Liability Insurance for Internships, Professional Qualification Activities, etc. (インターンシップ・教職資格活動等賠償責任保険). General information is as follows:

Eligible for: inside Japan and overseas

Contents: Coverage up to 100 million yen (personal & property)

Term of Validity: from the date of purchase until March 31st

* The insurance can be purchased at the Career Office

* For those who go on Independently-arranged type Internships, please make sure to obtain an insurance through COOP or CREOTECH. Mention the type of internship and the duration in order to obtain the most accurate insurance policy.

Q10. How will I be contacted by the office?

A. You will be contacted through your APU email or Campus Terminal in regards to Pre and Post-(Business) Internship Classes and any other internship-related matters. Make sure you check regularly.

Q11. Somehow, I still feel unsure!

A. If you wish to consult any problems that you have faced while on your internship, please contact the university through the channels shown below.

過去にインターンシップを経験した学生の声

Former Students' Experiences

ズバリ! インターンシップはおススメしますか?

So, would you recommend internships to others?

NO!

The reason is…

- インターンシップは非常に価値がある社会的な経験だと思うからです。インターンシップのおかげで日本の人間関係と社会の雰囲気が分かるようになるだけでなく、様々なソーシャルスキルも積み、新しいことに挑戦できます。
- The job was really interesting. Also, I had a chance to interact with many good students from other universities and learn a lot from them as well. The working environment and people were really nice as well. I had a chance to learn more about organizing events and teamwork.
- 就職前に実際に働いてみることで、さまざまなところからの気付きがあり、就職について考え直すことができた。
- By joining an internship, especially an internship that is provided by APU, we could get 2 course credits. Moreover, with this internship, I could learn so many important things in regards to work life and I could also experience what working in a Japanese company is really like.

これからインターンシップに臨む後輩に、あなたから「これだけは伝えたい！」

What is one piece of advice you have for future interns?

- インターンシップ中の勤務態度には気を付けよう。イヤホンで音楽を聴きながら仕事をしていた学生が注意を受けていました。それ以外にも、積極的に質問をしたりしないと「何のために来たの?」と思われるしまい、かえって悪い印象を残してしまいます。せっかく行くのだったら、「私はこの会社実際に入社したのだ」というくらいの気持ちで参加したほうが自分のためになると思います。
- たぶんいろいろな人から“働くのは大変だ”“考えていたこととぜんぜん違う”など、仕事に対する不安なことを聞いたりすることが多いと思うけれど、実際に働いてみることでそのような不安を少しでもほぐすことができると思う。せっかくあるチャンスだからみんな挑戦して欲しいです。
- Work is always hard at first. In Japan, people start working from a lower position to learn and experience. The seniors will try to teach you so, be grateful of their teaching and advice. Try to find value in your work to keep your mood up despite the hardships. Internships are good chances to see your strong points and weak points. It also teaches you about working conditions in an industry.
- An internship is the right time for you to test your capabilities and will help you figure out what your goal is in the future. However, you will also need to find the internship that is right for you, which may be different from other people.

In Conclusion

● Participating in internships = taking your first step as a full-fledged adult in society

While it may be considered an internship, you will be treated as if you were a fellow employee in the company/organization. Furthermore, to the companies who have accepted you as interns, you are representatives of APU. You are expected to behave in a way that is thus appropriate as a fellow member of the company and a representative of the university. If you are unable to follow the basic code of conduct such as being present and on time for the Pre and Post-(Business) Internship Classes, submitting required paperwork by the designated deadlines and following instructions from the university, we will be hesitant in allowing you to represent APU as interns in companies/organizations. You are the pride of APU so be mindful of your actions as you conduct yourself out there in working society.

● Basic code of conduct

- 1) Follow instructions given to you by your supervisor and take initiative in completing them and learning from your work.
- 2) Refrain from unexcused absences, tardiness and leaving work early. In case of emergencies, be sure to contact your supervisor in advance.
- 3) Protect company confidential information and refrain from leaking it to third-parties even after your internship is over.
- 4) Listen to the instructions given to you by your supervisor and follow the rules of the workplace.
- 5) Be active in "hou-ren-sou"* during your internship

* "hou-ren-sou" means "spinach" in Japanese and refers to the form of communication commonly used in the Japanese workplace. The term signifies "reporting 【報 (ホウ)】, informing 【連 (レン)】, consulting 【相 (ソウ)】" in which you must consistently report your status to your superiors, inform all involved parties on updates of your work, and consult with others before making decisions. This form of communication defines the Japanese workplace as tasks are often completed as a team rather than individually.

● Participating in internships → doesn't mean you will always receive academic credit

Internships may be registered as academic courses in APU as students are furthering their learning and building their careers through these experiences. However, we often hear comments from students stating, "If I can't get course credit, then I won't participate in internships." That is not the point of internships. You need to clearly understand why you are participating in internships as it is not a replacement for classes at APU. In addition, in order to register your internship as an academic course to receive credit, there are necessary requirements that you need to fulfill. Therefore, you may not necessarily be able to receive credits each time that you register. It's crucial that you understand the basic requirements of registering for course credit beforehand. For more details, refer to p. 6~7 for Contract-type Internships, and p.16 for Business Internships in the Internship Handbook. If you have any further questions regarding registering internships for course credit, feel free to inquire with the Academic Office

● Fully utilize the Pre and Post-(Business) Internship Classes (we highly recommend them!)

If you are to participate in an internship as an official APU course and receive credits, you are required to attend the Pre and Post-(Business) Internship Classes. In the Pre-(Business) Internship Class, you will receive training on business manners and on creating the right mindset to take on your internship.

You will be able to take more out of the internship if you prepare yourself beforehand with sufficient background knowledge. Furthermore, the Post-(Business) Internship Class will help you reflect back on the experiences that you have gained and connect it to your own future career. If you would like more details in regards to these classes, please refer to the syllabus and inquire with the Academic Office if you have any more questions.
