

Faculty Information

SUZUKI Yasushi

Division:

International Public Administration (IPA)
Development Economics (DE)

Research Area:

Political Economy, Institutional Economics, Theories of Rents & Rent-seeking, Corruption, Public Finance, Financial Development, Comparative Economic Systems (Japan, US, China, Islamic Finance and Microcredit), Development Economics, Political Philosophy, Philosophy of Economics (Social Justice), International Economic Law

Research Methods:

Quantitative and Qualitative Analyses, Comparative Analyses

Seminar Topic and Keywords:

Depends on the seminar members' research interest.

Seminar Teaching Method:

Critical Readings & Discussions

Possible Research Topics for Students:

Any topic related to, in a broad sense, Political Economy and Policy Science.

Comments: