

Faculty Information

HIRANO Miharu

■ Division:

International Relations (IR)

■ Research Area:

Public International Law, the Law of Global Governance, International Water Law

■ Research Methods:

Legal research, case studies

■ Seminar Topic and Keywords:

Public international law, international organizations, peaceful settlement of international disputes, contemporary international legal issues (use of force, human rights, environmental protection, economic globalization, etc.)

■ Seminar Teaching Method:

Legal research skill development, discussions based on the selected materials, presentations on the progress

■ Possible Research Topics for Students:

An analysis of a treaty regime, an international organization, or jurisprudence; Case study on the legal dimension of an international conflict

■ Comments: