Notes:

1. Complete this table based on the actual performance for AY2013.
2. Do not include data from the previous Table "3 Full-time Faculty Research Funds (Actual)" in faculty research travel allowances.
3. Indicate the conditions for research travel allowances in the Remarks column (i.e., eligibility, maximum amounts etc.).
4. "Long-term" study abroad is for periods of one year or more; "short-term" study abroad is for periods of less than one year.

[University Notes]

1. Since one faculty member in the College of Asia Pacific Studies resigned at the end of the spring semester, one faculty member in the College of International Management was appointed in the fall semester, and one faculty member in the Center for Language Education was on childcare leave in for the duration of the spring semester, each was only paid one semester's worth of funds (Y50, 000).
