

AY2024 Incentive Scholarship for Self-motivated Students

Calling all students involved in on or off campus extracurricular activities such as sports, dance, the arts, debate, business competitions, international exchange, and volunteer activities to apply for the “Incentive Scholarships for Self-motivated Students”! Individual students who conducted off-campus activities not registered with the university are eligible to apply.

1) Social Contribution Award

This award recognizes groups or individuals whose activities significantly contributed to solving problems confronting local communities or society as a whole either within Japan or overseas. This award also recognizes groups or individuals whose activities have greatly contributed to the APU community.

2) Award for Excellence in Cultural Activities, Arts, and Sports

This award recognizes groups or individuals who have made continuous efforts to achieve the high goals they have set and who have a record of excellence in one of the areas of cultural activities, the arts, or sports.

3) Award for Outstanding Contributions to Learning

This award recognizes groups or individuals who have organized and held creative events or activities that utilize their studies at APU to share their learning with a wide range of people.

Award ✨ 100,000 JPY (Organizations) ✨
✨ 50,000 JPY (Individual applicants) ✨

Activity Period July 1, 2023 – June 30, 2024

(Activities must have taken place during this period to be eligible.)

Submission Deadline Wed., July 3, 2024, 10 a.m.

Outreach and Research Office
Student Activity Team

Check the website for further details!