APU-Net (APU Account)

- "APU Account" is the university's ID which you use until graduation.
 - It is different from Student ID (e.g. 11003399). This ID is set by APU and distributed to you.
 - Example of APU Account: stuapu20, ap28s1ap
- How do I find out what my APU Account is?
 - You have been notified of your APU Account through the "Online Enrollment Procedure System" for domestic entrance exam students, or by email for International entrance exam students. Please do not continue to use the temporary password but change it by yourself.
- When will I need to use my APU Account?
 - It will be needed when you register for courses, use a campus PC or your APU email, submit your assignments / reports and take online classes etc. You will need it every time you use one of the university systems. Please keep it carefully.
 - Be careful to not let anyone know your password!!

Zoom

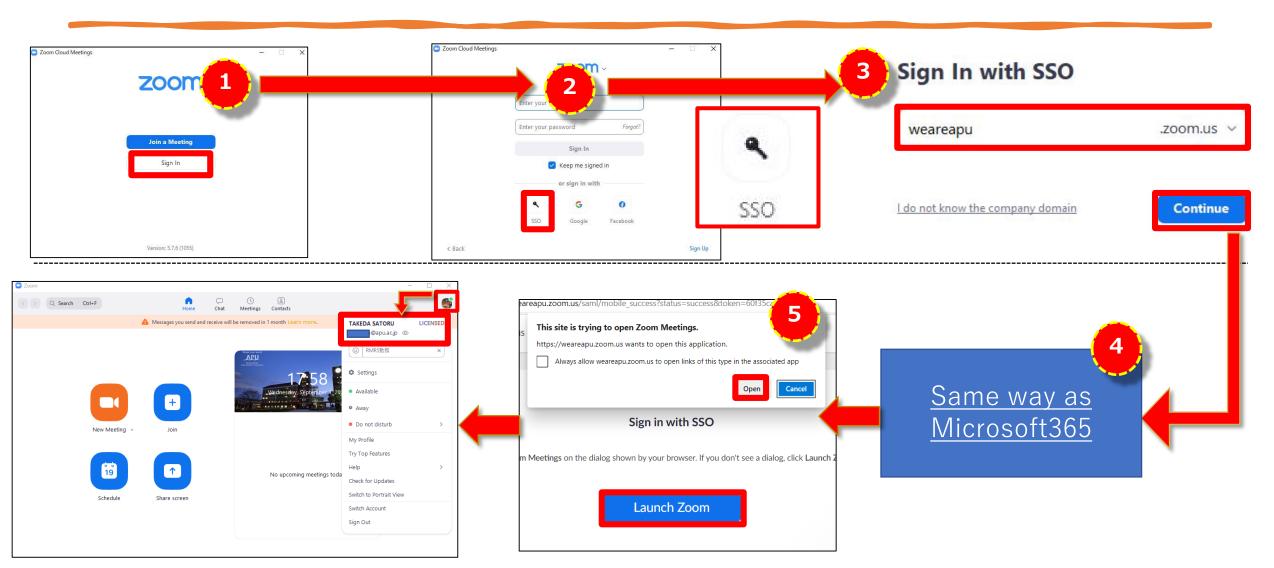

- Due to the continued spread of COVID-19, APU delivers online classes using Zoom.
- After logging into Zoom, enter the zoom meeting ID as shown in the class timetable. This will allow you to join that class
- Download and install the Zoom App on your PC or tablet. (install Manual)

Notes

- To enter online classes, you need to login to Zoom with your APU Account.
 You cannot join through a zoom account linked to your private email address like gmail.
- Keep note of the MTG IDs necessary for the classes you take
- Manuals can be found on the webpage of the Academic Office website.

Log in to Zoom

manaba / respon

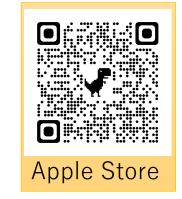

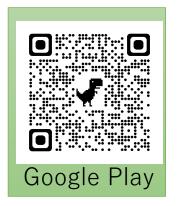

- "manaba" is used as learning management system (LMS) at APU.
 You can acces course materials and submit assignments/reports. It is used for tests or groupwork as well.
- The tool "respon" is used for class attendance submission and responding to questionnaires or quizzes during class.

You can use it easily as a smartphone app. Install it through the QR code! If you do not install it on your phone, you can also use it on manaba.

• Manuals are on the webpage of the Academic Office website.
